Showdown With Fascist Type Groups Coming In France

Premier Laval Yields to Demand of Leftists That Government Disband Croix De Feu and Similar Bodies of "Political Troops"; Life of His Cabinet Is at Stake

Associated Press
Paris, Nov. 26.—Premier Laval to-day yielded to the demand of the Leftists for the disbanding of Nationalist forces, such as the war veterans' Croix de Feu, to save the franc and to defend his cabinet against threat of overthrow. The cabinet agreed on a proposal, now pending in Parliament, to appeal to "patriotism" of the Chamber of Deputies for immediate discussion of M. Laval's financial measures.

Detectives Deny Investigator's Story Lindbergh Ransom Bills Turning Up

Associated Press
Trenton, N.J., Nov. 26.—Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted of the Lindbergh baby murder, from his death house cell to-day said Dr. John F. "Jafsie" Condon, ransom intermediary, "is holding the key in this case, and with it the key of my cell."

New York, Nov. 26.—Chief investigator for Bruno Richard Hauptmann declared to-day he had learned on "unimpeachable authority" that Lindbergh ransom bills have turned up recently in Boston and Worcester, Mass.

Forty-three Mill Rate Is Expected

Reduced Assessment and Other Forces Indicate Rise in Rate For Victoria Next Year

A tax rate of at least forty-three mills, two above that of the current year, is confidently expected for the city next year, it was learned from authoritative sources at the City Hall to-day.

Many contributing factors were reviewed to indicate reason for the assurance the rate would be pushed up. According to word from D. A. MacDonald, city comptroller-treasurer, the city will finish the year with a slight deficit unless some unexpected source of revenue is found to compensate for certain losses sustained this year.

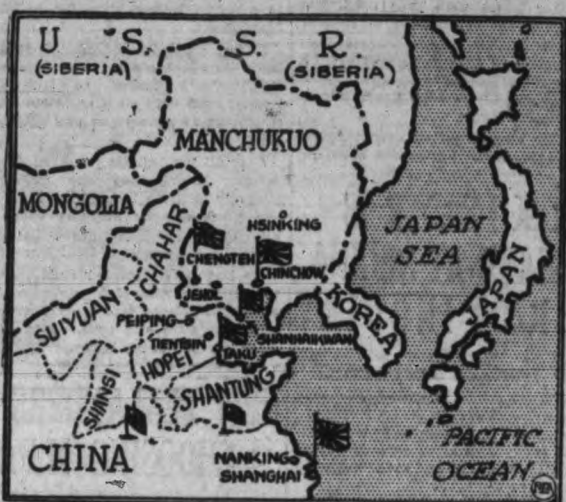

The assessment was reduced again for 1936 by a figure equivalent to approximately two and one-half mills. COSTS MOUNTING Relief costs are reported mounting, owing to the fact the city department has taken over new features until recently handled by the Friendly Help Welfare Association. And no assistance is foreseen through government action in relieving municipalities of some of their social service burdens.

In the words of Mayor David Leeming, expenditures have been cut to the bone, and in the phrase of Alderman P. R. Brown, the marrow has been scraped from that bone.
In 1936 the city will be required to pay employees on a full twelve-month basis on the higher scale given this year when only seven or eight months were effected.

For the last few years the city has borrowed from the provincial government to finance unemployment relief. Serial debentures have been refunded and this year provisions for the sinking fund were foregone. A slight surplus from the sinking fund earnings assisted the city in the 1935 budget, but from current reports there will be no surplus to assist the 1936 financing.

It was believed that only a change in the provincial government's attitude to certain services and costs could save the city from a higher rate.
If, however, the council is able to strike a rate of forty-three and a fraction mills, the average tax payment by property owners would not be materially increased, since the reductions given on assessments would offset that increase in the rate.

Trek Leader Is Heard At Riot Inquiry In Regina

NEW B.C. JUDGE

A. M. MANSON, K.C.
Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 26.—A. M. Manson, K.C., of Vancouver has been appointed a judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, The Vancouver Daily Sun says to-day in a news page story.

The appointment was made last Thursday, but announcement is being withheld until Mr. Manson has had time to clear up his private business, the paper states.

The vacancy on the Supreme Court bench was caused by the death this year of Mr. Justice F. G. T. Lucas of Vancouver.

NEW ZEALANDERS CHOOSING M.P.'S

Four Maoris Chosen in First Day's Polling; Main Body of New Members Will Be Known To-morrow
Canberra Press Cable via Reuter's
Wellington, N.Z., Nov. 27.—Two out of three members declared elected to-day in New Zealand's general election were supporters of the National Government, which has held office since 1931.

Sir Apirana Ngata, former Maori representative in the cabinet, was again returned to the House of Representatives with an enormous majority.
Early results came from the four constituencies returning Maori members. The three elected were all members of the last Parliament, two being government members and one an independent.
The decision in the fourth constituency was doubtful as the candidates polled votes almost equal.

Arthur Evans Gives Commission His Version of Origin of on-to-Ottawa March

Regina, Nov. 26.—Origins of the on-to-Ottawa trek in June in the British Columbia relief camp strike which brought nearly 200 young men with a list of "demands" into Vancouver, and later launched them on a 3,000-mile freight car journey toward the nation's capital, were examined to-day as Arthur Evans, trek leader, testified at the Regina riot inquiry.

As the royal commission inquiring into the riot climax of the trek in Regina on July 1 reached the noon adjournment, the witness was still on the stand and his story was still in the early stages of the original camp workers' strike in Vancouver.

Considerable argument developed among counsel as Evans proceeded over questions of admissibility to hear evidence. Frank Cunningham, striker counsel, indicated at several points where corroboratory testimony might be secured only at Vancouver. He repeated his intention to request removal later of the inquiry to Vancouver.

Evans described himself as British Columbia district organizer of the Workers' Unity League, "a trade union centre, something like the American Federation of Labor."
One of the organizations becoming affiliated with the Unity League was the relief Camp Workers' Union, formed in 1933.

The demands of the camp workers which brought them out on strike were outlined by Evans as:
1. Work with wages.
2. Compensation for injuries and provision of first aid.
3. Removal of military control of camps and abolition of "black listing."
4. Provision of workers' committees in camps.
5. Non-contributory social insurance.

DUMPING DUTIES TO BE CANCELED

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Steps to make less onerous Canadian dumping duties against United States products were taken to-day when National Revenue Minister Isley announced the cancellation on January 1 of several of these imposts.
That is the date on which the provisions of the reciprocity agreement will come into effect and the undertakings in a note on behalf of Canada which accompanied the treaty will be fulfilled at the same time.

Gosport, Eng., Nov. 26.—Preparations were made to-day for a new Class J yacht, Endeavour II, for T. O. M. Sopwith, who yachting circles expect will challenge again for the America's Cup, now in the custody of the New York Yacht Club.

Ethiopians Reoccupy Cities

Italians Forced From Gorrabel, They Say; Italian Planes Near Harar

Addis Ababa, Nov. 26.—The Ethiopian government announced to-day: "Gorrabel and Grelgub have been evacuated by the Italians. The Ethiopian army is making arrangements to reoccupy the cities."

The announcement continued: "Under pressure by Ethiopians, the Italians retreated, leaving behind five trucks and their own dead."
"The flight was caused by an encircling movement by Ras Desta, Ethiopian commander, and his forces moving out of Dolo toward Lugh."

Harar, Nov. 26 (Canadian Press from Havas).—Reports Italian bombing planes were approaching Harar after bombing Agirale, between Dagah Bur and Jijiga, to-day dampened Ethiopian optimism at a report that 100,000 Ethiopians under Ras Desta Danttu had invaded Italian Somaliland.

The latter report, received here yesterday by a Reuter correspondent, said the Ethiopian army was advancing rapidly toward Mogadiscio, capital of the Italian colony.

Ex-Emperor Of Ethiopia Dies

Lij Yasu, Deposed in 1926, Passes Away; Haile Selassie in Mourning

By JAMES A. MILLS
Associated Press Correspondent
Addis Ababa, Nov. 26.—Lij Yasu, deposed Emperor of Ethiopia, is dead, authoritative sources announce to-day.

The grandson of Emperor Menelek II, deposed in 1926 after a tribal rebellion and since then central figure in many strange and fantastic tales, died at Tana Mula, near Harar, now a strategic point on the southern front of Ethiopia's war with Italy, after a lingering illness.

His successor, Emperor Haile Selassie, went into mourning.
Lij Yasu was thirty-eight years of age.
He ruled Ethiopia for only three years before going into exile and becoming subject of many a strange and fantastic tale.

STATE OF SIEGE NOW IN BRAZIL

Plot to Have Rio de Janeiro Regiment Join Uprising Nipped

Associated Press
Rio de Janeiro, Nov. 26.—An alleged plot to enlist the First Cavalry Regiment, quartered in the heart of Rio de Janeiro, in a communist rebellion against the government was thwarted to-day as reports from authentic sources showed a rebellion death list of from forty to sixty men.

Lieut. Lauro Fontoura, detailed to the training of reserve officers, was arrested before dawn charged with attempting to incite a revolt of the cavalry unit.
Officials said he had made an effort to bring the crack mounted corps into line with the soldiers who are fighting in northeast Brazil against the government.

From the state of Pernambuco, Capt. Melvino Reis, Secretary of Security of the state, reported that after twenty-two hours of fighting the insurgents had been driven back toward Socorro, the military garrison of Recife, and that about sixty had been killed and 100 captured.
With a "state of siege" proclaimed throughout the nation, the government was pushing all available military power into the area where the rebels had made their gains.

OIL EMBARGO NOW EXPECTED

League Move Against Italy May Be Made Early In December

Canadian Press from Havas
Geneva, Nov. 26.—League of Nations circles believed to-night an oil embargo against Italy will go into effect early in December, in conformity with Canada's proposal to the League sanctions committee.

It is now believed the committee of eighteen, whose meeting set for this Friday was postponed at France's request yesterday, will meet on the embargo question December 3 or 6.

London, Nov. 26.—Great Britain, it is officially intimated to-day, intends to abide by her support of the Canadian resolution to add oil and coal to the list of sanctions against Italy.

Rt. Hon. E. A. Fitzroy Re-elected Speaker When Members Gather For Session

London, Nov. 26.—Unanimously and with loud cheering the new House of Commons, meeting for the first time this afternoon, re-elected Rt. Hon. E. A. Fitzroy its speaker.

It is Mr. Fitzroy's fourth term in the Speaker's chair.
The newly-elected members met with many a handshake and joke. There were faces old and faces new as every bench in the House was filled. Many late-comers had to stand. Two government ministers sat on the steps leading to the Speaker's throne.

CHEERS FOR BALDWIN
Government members—once again more than 400 strong—were so numerous that they splashed over what is usually the opposition side of the House. They gave Prime Minister Baldwin a rousing cheer as he took his seat.

People Can Depend on Government and New M.P.'s to Deal With Varied Problems Facing Province, Says Premier; Cabinet Will Return to Work at Once, He Declares

Montreal, Nov. 26.—Hon. Louis Alexandre Taschereau still sits in the Premier's chair of Quebec to-day, following yesterday's general election, and in the new Legislative Assembly the Liberal Government will have a majority of six members.

The Liberal Party, after thirty-eight years in office, had forty-seven of its candidates in the province's ninety constituencies, returned yesterday. One Independent Liberal was elected, while the joint Conservative-Action Libérale Nationale opposition captured forty-two seats between them.

"The people have spoken," said Mr. Taschereau, who became Premier fifteen years ago.

"The population of the province can depend on the government, the ministers and all the members to deal with the different problems facing us."

PREMIER TASCHEREAU

Speaking of the party standings, the Premier said:

"Our government returns to power with a weak majority, but those few votes permit a little satisfaction if we look about us. In recent months the Bennett government, that of Nova Scotia, of Prince Edward Island, of New Brunswick and of Alberta have all fallen one after the other. Ours is maintained. I thank the population for this mark of confidence. We shall in a short time have some committee to make on the results and the factors which diminished our majority.

"My colleagues and I are going right back to work to give the people the best that is in us in the task of surmounting the crisis still apparent. In that purpose we count on the co-operation of everybody."

"Our party suffered losses. I regret them sincerely. We have lost several colleagues, but hope their absence will be of short duration and that we will see them beside us again. I congratulate with all my heart our elected candidates."

OPPOSITION GROUP

By party designations, the Conservatives, under Maurice Duplessis, won 16 seats, and the Action Libérale Nationale, directed by Paul Gouin, was successful in 26 constituencies. The two groups make up the allied opposition.

PARTY STANDING

When the nineteenth Legislature meets, January 7, 1936, the assembly will be composed of the following:

Liberals	47
Ind. Liberals	1
Conservatives	16
Action Libérale Nationale	26
Total	90

At dissolution last May the party standing was:

Liberals	60
Conservatives	20
Ind. Liberals	1
Ind. Conservative	1
Vacancies	10

Accused Constable Found Unconscious

R. C. McWade, One of Seven Held on Burglary Charges in Seattle, Plunges From Bunk to Concrete Floor

Associated Press
Seattle, Nov. 26.—Patrolman R. C. McWade, one of seven suspects in a "bluecoat burglary ring," was found unconscious in his city jail cell to-day, and Dr. G. S. Carroll of the City Hospital said the man had apparently plunged to the concrete floor from a top bunk.
McWade was rushed to the hospital with a head injury and a serious injury to his spine, which may have been fractured, Dr. Carroll said. His left wrist had also been cut. Dr. Carroll reported, although a tielap was the only possible weapon found in the cell, the fall to the floor was about five feet.

Earlier to-day, Police Chief Walter B. Kirtley had announced that a seventh policeman, Patrolman E. H. Odell, was under arrest as a suspect in burglaries for which six other officers, a Washington National Guard sergeant and a county road employee had been arrested.
Odell was booked on an open charge, Kirtley said, after all of the eight men first arrested had made complete confessions, involving various ones of them in at least twenty burglaries.
Kirtley said Odell, attached to headquarters patrol, was implicated in (Turn to Page 2, Col. 5.)

NORTH CHINA MOVE CHECKED

Nanking Government Seeks to End Autonomy Talk By Granting Reforms

Associated Press
Shanghai, Nov. 26.—The Chinese central government moved to check the north China autonomy movement to-day by adoption of a sweeping five-point programme of administrative reforms.

Responsible Japanese quarters said the central government's executive committee, meeting at Nanking, decided:

1. To establish a Peiping office of the executive body, with War Minister Ho Ying-chin as director.
2. To abolish the Peiping branch of the Military Council.
3. To transfer the council's business to a military affairs commission.
4. To appoint Gen. Sung Chieh-yuan, north China overlord reputedly elected by Japan to head an autonomous action in that area, to the newly created post of pacification commissioner for Hopei and Chahar provinces.
5. To order dismissal and arrest of Yin Ju-keng, Chinese administrator of the demilitarized zone and self-appointed chairman of the newly formed east Hopei autonomous state.

QUEBEC RENEWS LIBERAL MINISTRY'S MANDATE

Premier Taschereau in Montmorency, the constituency he has represented continuously for thirty-five years. Mr. Duplessis in Three Rivers, and Mr. Gouin in L'Assomption.

Including Premier Taschereau, eight cabinet ministers were successful at the polls while two were defeated, both in Montreal Island ridings. Hon. Irvin Vautrin, Minister of Colonization, bowed to Ald. Henry L. Auger, city council leader and Conservative, in Montreal St. James, and Hon. C. J. Arcand, Minister of Labor, went down to defeat in Malouneville. His opponent was William Tremblay, a former Conservative M.P., who ran under the same banner. Mr. Tremblay is president of the Montreal Butchers' Association.

MINISTERS RE-ELECTED

The seven cabinet ministers re-elected, in addition to the Premier, are: Hon. T. D. Bouchard, Municipal Affairs, Trade and Commerce, in St. Hyacinthe; Hon. Athanas David, Provincial Secretary, in Terrebonne; Hon. J. N. Francoeur, Public Works, Game

WANT RECOUNTS

From Mr. Gouin to-day came the statements there would be contestations in at least three constituencies. He said those the Duplessis-Gouin joint organization were sure to contest are Montreal St. Louis, where Peter Berovitch, Liberal, was elected by acclamation; Montreal St. Lawrence, where Joseph Cohen was re-elected on the Liberal ticket, and Montreal Mercier, where Dr. Anatole Plante was returned as a Liberal.

Mr. Duplessis said he had no statement to make at present.

The agreement between Mr. Duplessis and Mr. Gouin was that if their combined forces were successful the former would become Premier and Mr. Gouin would choose the majority of cabinet ministers. As it is Mr. Duplessis will continue to lead the opposition in the House with a larger support behind him than any previous opposition leader since 1897, when the Liberals began their interrupted reign.

CHANGED CONDITIONS

Never before since Confederation have the scales of popular favor been so evenly balanced in Quebec. Instead of the overwhelming majorities behind successive Liberal governments for thirty-eight years, it will be necessary for Premier Taschereau to count noses before votes are taken. Election of a speaker will reduce the Liberal majority to five.

MONTREAL AND QUEBEC

Of special interest were the results in the province's two largest cities, Montreal and Quebec. In the former, four Liberals out of fifteen were elected, while in only one of the four traditionally Liberal seats in Quebec was the government endorsed.

In Montmagny, where political history was made by the active participation in the campaign of a priest, Mayor J. E. Gregoire of Quebec, the A.L.N. candidate, was successful, defeating Fernand Choquette, Liberal. Rev. Valmore La Vergne spoke in support of Quebec's mayor.

Throughout the campaign Mr. Duplessis and Mr. Gouin were given the backing of Hon. J. C. E. Ouellet, Legislative Councillor and former member of the Taschereau cabinet, and Hon. Elise Theriault, Legislative Councillor. Both praised the Duplessis-Gouin union and remarked that Mr. Gouin, like his father, the late Sir Lomer Gouin, Premier of Quebec from 1900 to 1920, was destined to play a major role in provincial affairs. Sir Lomer handed over the reins of government to Mr. Taschereau in 1920.

LEADER SILENT

Maurice Duplessis, Conservative M.P. for his home town of Three Rivers since 1927, was chosen Conservative leader at a convention in 1933. He succeeded Camille Houde, then as now mayor of Montreal, who was defeated with his party in the provincial election of 1931. He is a lawyer and a bachelor.

Hon. R. F. Stockwell, Provincial Treasurer, fared better in this contest than when he first presented himself in 1931. In the last election he squeezed through twenty-five votes ahead of his Conservative opponent, but this time he worked up a majority of about 500 over Dr. F. H. Piché, who was defeated in the last Dominion election when he sought re-election as a Conservative in Brome-Missisquoi. Dr. Leo Duguay, formerly Conservative member of the House of Commons for Lake St. John, was more successful than his former colleague,

The funeral of the late Comrade Wm. 102d Battalion, will take place from St. Francis Xavier Parish tomorrow afternoon (Wednesday), at 3.30 o'clock. Memorial service, Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion, 3.30 p.m., 28 requested to attend.

Dr. Piché. He wrested Lake St. John from the Liberal J. L. Pilon, WHIPS RETURNED

Both the Liberal and Conservative whips were returned—Dr. Plante, Liberal, Montreal Mercier, and Antonio Elie, Conservative, in Yamaska. Mr. Elie's work will be more strenuous than during the last session when he only had a handful of colleagues to round up when division bells rang. Just six weeks ago at the Dominion election the federal Liberal Party increased its following from forty to sixty, while the Conservative strength dropped from twenty-four to five.

IN FIVE YEARS

The record of Liberal triumphs and Conservative defeats in the last five years follows: Manitoba, 1932, Progressive government changed to Liberal; British Columbia, 1933, Conservative government replaced by Liberal and Conservative Party wiped out; Nova Scotia, 1933, Conservative government replaced by Liberal with large majority; Ontario, 1934, huge Conservative majority turned into great Liberal majority; Saskatchewan, 1934, Co-operative government under Conservative leadership replaced by Liberal and Conservative following eliminated; New Brunswick, 1935, Conservative government replaced by Liberal with an overwhelming majority; Prince Edward Island, 1935, Liberal Party captured all seats in the Legislature and turned out a Conservative government; Dominion, 1935, Conservative government at Ottawa replaced by Liberal in sweeping victory.

PARTY GAINS SUMMARIZED

Following is a Canadian Press list of party gains in the Quebec election: From Conservatives: Hull, Two Mountains, Chambly. Independent Liberal gain—one. From Liberal: Montreal, St. Ann. Action Liberal Nationale gain—twenty-six. From Liberals: Jacques Cartier, Montreal-Dorion, Montreal-Laurier, Montreal-St. Henry, Montreal-St. Mary Beauce, Champlain, Chicoutimi, Pontenac, L'Assomption, Lavolette, Quebec Centre, Quebec East, Roberval, St. Maurice, Sherbrooke, Portneuf, St. Jean, Dorchester, Painesau, Temiscamingue. Conservative gains—eight. From Liberals: Beauharnois, Lake St. John, Missisquoi, Richmond, Laval, Malouneville, Montreal-St. James, Compton.

about 16,000 square miles of northern Ethiopian territory with a loss of not more than fifteen white troops from its expeditionary force of 300,000 men, according to figures in possession of Italian colonial headquarters here.

There has not been a single real battle since the Fascists first invaded Emperor Haile Selassie's realm on October 2.

The few Italian white troops who have been killed have been shot from ambush by tribesmen lying in wait for supply caravans.

REPORT 100 KILLED

Fome, Nov. 26.—One hundred Ethiopians, including two provincial governors, were reported in an official communiqué to-day to have been killed during a battle north of Dolo on the southern front.

The Italian losses were announced as four native soldiers killed, five wounded and two missing at Dolo, which lies directly on the border between Ethiopia and Italian Somaliland.

The communiqué said: "The Danakil column has begun again mopping up operations on the eastern border of the plateau. Some 100 Danakils who recently submitted joined in the action."

"On the front of the Eritrean army corps, operations have begun again toward Tembien, while battalions of blackhairs are organizing the Ghera territory as far as Abba Fasse."

"On the front of the Second Army Corps, the chief of staff, Teda Fanta, who had submitted to us, defeated with his armed followers Eritrean bands which gathered beyond the Vert."

SURPRISE ATTACK

"On the Somaliland front, in the Gurel sector, Gen. Rudolf Grani received information of a concentration of Ethiopian forces at Lamma-Sclindi, on the Uebi Gestro River, 100 kilometres north of Dolo."

"He sent a swift column which launched surprise attack November 22 on the Ethiopian camp."

"After five hours of bitter fighting, the enemy was completely routed."

"There were left on the field of battle about 100 enemy dead, among them two degias (governors). They were Abba Gurraclia and Argau. The first was a lieutenant of Pitsauri Barahel, who previously was wounded."

"We captured fifty rifles, several pistols, and an ammunition dump."

"Our losses were four dead, five wounded and two missing, all natives."

"The aviation forces executed a reconnaissance over Tigre province. A squadron of Somaliland aviation forces bombed the Ethiopian fortification of Dagah Bur."

"Our airplanes flew over the city of Harar, observing warlike activity."

He did not know how the opinion of the men in the camps was recorded, but a conference which drafted the demand for a new constitution on April 4, 1935. This was the strike that brought the men out of the camps into Vancouver.

CHARTER IDENTIFIED

Evans readily identified a charter of the Workers' Unity League indicating the Relief Camp Workers' Union had become defunct. He identified signatures of Sam Searles, Tom Evans, Charles Sims and others on the charter. It had been seized in a police raid in Vancouver and previously produced at the inquiry.

"The listing" he explained as eviction from camps of men and as he went on to tell of conditions in the British Columbia camps his remarks were admitted as showing the factors which influenced union officials in calling the strike, but not as evidence of conditions. Evans said he had not been registered in a camp.

When he got back from being away in December, 1934, he said, some 1,300 to 1,500 workers were on strike in Vancouver.

"Where were you?" asked Judge Doak, one of the commissioners. "I will tell you if you want to know. In jail," replied Evans.

Strike tactics included "store demonstrations" in which the men marched through big Vancouver stores, he said. Mr. Cunningham—What was the attitude of the shoppers?

"Witness—Very, very sympathetic. I seen women with tears in their eyes watching these young people."

This strike ended in December, 1934. Decision either to start or end a strike rested with the "rank and file" of the organization, said Evans.

MAY CALL BENNETT

Proposal to call H. C. Hon. R. B. Bennett, former Prime Minister of Canada at the inquiry, was before the commission to-day. Hon. Hugh Justice, former federal Minister of Justice, may also be called to testify.

At yesterday's session, Frank J. G. Cunningham, counsel for the strikers, after reading extracts from Hansard of Mr. Bennett's remarks in the House of Commons July 2 last, said: "I hope to examine Mr. Bennett on that point."

The point was a remark that "penalties of destructive and subversive influences went among these men."

Chief Justice J. T. Brown, chairman of the inquiry, said: "That's a definite statement," and asked whether Mr. Bennett had revealed the source of his information?

Mr. Cunningham replied he hoped to have Mr. Bennett to give it.

capture and continued the hunt for the twenty-two-year-old girl.

Overcome by the cold, disheveled and frightened, Van Vlack was found lying in a roadside ditch two miles north of Holladay by three employees of the mechanical department of the Twin Falls News who had joined the hunt after putting the newspaper to press early to-day.

A few hours after Van Vlack's capture the 1931 coupe in which he had fled from Tacoma was found in a ditch about three miles north of where he was arrested.

Police said they found long strands of black hair wedged in portions of Van Vlack's revolver.

GAVE UP PISTOL

Van Vlack surrendered his pistol to Carl H. Groth, a linotype operator, who was accompanied by Lee Stiles and Dan Selzer. They notified Sheriff E. F. Prater of his capture and Van Vlack accompanied the officer quietly to the jail here.

He was placed in a cell before more than a handful of persons in the court house knew of his arrest.

A couple identified as Van Vlack and his woman companion halted briefly at a service station at Rogers last night and asked about the highways into Nevada. A line of possession was quickly thrown around the vicinity, but Van Vlack evidently doubled back to the northward in the direction of Twin Falls, instead of continuing into the neighboring state.

GOLD CHAINS

The favorite legend had the one-time monarch held in golden chains at Haile Selassie's Addis Ababa palace to prevent the Italians, now invading Ethiopia, from kidnapping him.

Other reports had the possibility of an Italian bombing of Harar prompting the Emperor to remove Lij Yasu to a secret hiding place far in the hinterlands.

It was generally conceded that at Haile Selassie's orders, the deposed Emperor was allowed to live in luxury, even with such comforts and diversions as champagne and playing cards.

Over all the legends prevailed deep mystery ever since the Italians allegedly tried to kidnap Lij Yasu a few years ago by airplane with a view to making him emperor in the event Italy conquered Ethiopia.

He had been reported dead many times, but Ethiopian government officials disclosed last June that he was then alive and confined in the villa not far from Harar.

The investigator, who requested his name be withheld, said he had recently found in a house near Ashby, Mass., letter dated March 10, 1932, ten days after the Lindbergh baby was kidnapped, which read, in part: "Why don't you return that poor little Lindbergh baby? You have had it long enough."

Washington, Nov. 26.—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the bureau of investigation, said to-day the Lindbergh ransom money stopped appearing after Hauptmann was arrested, and so far as we know, none has shown up since."

Hoover described reports of the appearance of new ransom notes as "absolutely untrue."

Lee, one of the prisoners, was employed as caretaker.

After long questioning, Patrolman W. H. Voltz, one of the six officers arrested Saturday, broke down and admitted taking part in twelve of the twenty burglaries, Kirtley said. Voltz had denied all knowledge of the burglaries, the chief said.

Kirtley said another truck load of articles, identified by records as stolen property, had been seized in the state armory along with the tools. Kirtley said there were "ten well-used burglary tools" in the cache.

GRAY HAIR
The Best Remedy
Is Made at Home

YOU can now make at home a better gray hair remedy than you can buy, by following this simple recipe. To half pint of water, add one ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Concentrated hair cream, and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any drugstore can put this up for you. It costs only a few cents. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. Orlex imparts color to streaked, faded or gray hair, makes it soft and glossy and takes years off your looks. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub out. It is not a dye, and is easy to get rid of in your own home.

Ark of Covenant Can Not Be Seen

Associated Press Correspondent Also Fails to See Tablets of Commandments in Ancient Cathedral at Aksum in Ethiopia

By ANDREW BERDING
Associated Press Foreign Staff
Aksum, Ethiopia, Nov. 26.—I have peered into Ethiopia's holy of holies, the sacred room in Aksum's cathedral where the true Ark of the Covenant and the ten Commandment tablets supposedly are enshrined, only to learn no mortal eyes can see them. For I saw absolutely nothing—nothing, that is, save a high hanging, pendant which, I was told, harbored the holy bees, deadly guardians of the invisible ark and its legendary tablets.

"Only a saintly man can see them," said the high priest, Ghebebe, who permitted me to gaze into the shrine only after I had used all the persuasion in my power to obtain his consent.

I checked my inability to see the sacred relic with a young Englishman. But he saw nothing, either.

NEVER SEEN
Hence I concluded the Ark and the tablets—reportedly brought to the Ethiopian mecca by the Queen of Sheba—never have been seen by any living person.

TOLD THE STORY
The high priest told us their history.

"The Queen of Sheba, our first ruler, and the mother of the Emperor Menelik, first brought them from King Solomon to Aksum," he began.

"The queen, attracted by Solomon's glory, went from Abyssinia to see him. She fell in love with him and she conceived a boy who became King Menelik I.

"When the time came for her to return to Abyssinia, Solomon wished to make her a present. He had copies made of the Ark of the Covenant and the ten Commandment tablets and gave them to her. But the queen secretly exchanged the copies for the originals at night and departed for her native country.

"Solomon tried to overtake her, but didn't succeed."

"It was then that we asked if we could go inside. The high priest was adamant in his refusal. We begged to be allowed to peer into the sacred room. After a long discussion, the high priest relented.

LOOKED THROUGH OPENING
I approached the shrine and looked through a three-inch opening. It was a small room, rising without a break to a high roof where a small cupola let in some light. But in the room itself was absolutely nothing.

I looked and looked to assure myself of this. Finally, up under the cupola, my eyes found a small pendant mass.

"It is the hive of the holy bees," the priest said. "If any person, save a saint, should try to enter the holy of holies the bees would sting him to death."

I asked the priest who, in his lifetime, had seen the Ark of the Covenant, the tablets and the Decalogue. "No one," he answered. "I have not seen them myself."

NOT DESTROYED
Centuries ago, he added, Arabs burned the cathedral. But the Ark and the tablets were not destroyed because the fire could not find them.

The tablets, he explained, are of wood, not stone. They are inscribed in the ancient language called "Ge'ez" and not in Hebrew. There are five of them, not two.

Therefore it would seem they could not be the tablets which, the Bible says, Jehovah gave to Moses on Mount Sinai.

We turned away from the shrine. The high priest preceded us from the cathedral. We put on our boots and walked to his residence.

As we left the churchyard a small whirlwind of dust swirled before us. Ghebebe held up his hand in reverential salute.

"Inside," he said, "is a spirit."

Minister of Defence Announces Date of Canadian Dedication in France

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Canada's national memorial on Vimy Ridge will be unveiled on Sunday, July 26, 1936, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of National Defence, said here yesterday evening.

The announcement was made in the course of the minister's address at the tenth "birthday party" of the Canadian Legion, celebrated by a banquet at which 1,200 ex-service men, their wives and friends were present.

The function was characterized by addresses all striking a high note of service, patriotism and loyalty.

In the chair was Brig.-General Alex. Ross, C.M.G., of Yorkton, Sask., dominion president of the Canadian Legion, who called for a period of silence, out of respect for the memory of the late Admiral Jellicoe.

NATIONAL PROBLEM
Hon. C. G. Power, Minister of Pensions, recalled there were 40,000 Canadians on the roll of the unemployed, and 15,000 more in receipt of small pensions for war disabilities, are on departmental relief.

"Many—far too many," continued the minister, "will never again be given an opportunity of handling a pay envelope or a salary cheque. They are no longer employable in an age of keen economic competition. Their plight has attained the proportion of a national problem."

Without "wishing to shift the burden of responsibility," Major Power called on all Legion members to give him the "closest co-operation. I pledge myself to do my part. I ask you to do yours."

"Forbidden Lines" of Spectrum Interest Scientists at Mount Wilson Observatory Studying Nova Herculis

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor
Pasadena, Calif., Nov. 26.—The "forbidden lines" of the spectrum, something fantastic almost beyond belief, have appeared in Nova Herculis, the new star which blazed forth last December like the Star of Bethlehem.

These lines, evidence of substances commonplace on earth in peculiar states possibly forever impossible here, are seen in the great telescopes of the Mt. Wilson Observatory of the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

In this star, so distant that its light takes at least 1,500 years to reach the earth, the astronomers are finding out things which cannot be learned in laboratories. They have seen iron, oxygen, neon, nitrogen and sulphur, all in the seemingly "forbidden" states.

SUCCESSIVE BROADSIDES
It now appears possible that this star did not burst like a bomb, but fired like a battleship, letting go successive broadsides perhaps first in one quarter then in another. The spectroscopic showed these bursts as flaming gases of metals and other ordinary elements, but all of them at first in states usually well known on the sun.

After they had traveled outward for months, at speeds ranging between 200 and 400 miles a second, the gases abruptly, within the space of a week, ceased to act like the ordinary things they had been and took on "forbidden" antics, states seen in far-distant nebulae, puzzling, seldom caught in the making.

METASTABLE STATE
The first was iron. Its light changed. For what happened the scientists have an explanation, and a name: metastable state. When iron is heated to the state of vapor and given out light, the glare is the energy released by electrons flying from one position or state in the atom to another. These transitions or jumps which take place according to definite laws are called "permitted" and given the ordinary conditions such as are found in the laboratory the lifetime of an electron in one of these states between collisions with other electrons or atoms is very short, barely a millionth of a second.

If, however, the density of the vapor is very low, collisions become infrequent and an electron can stay in a given state for minutes or even hours without being knocked out of it. A metastable is one from which jumps are very improbable and requires a long mean lifetime. So if the density becomes low enough light is produced by jumps from metastable states, which give the "forbidden" lines.

TEST FORESEEN ON INTEREST

McGeer Says Ottawa Conference Must Ease Vancouver's Financial Burden

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 26.—Mayor G. G. McGeer told the city council yesterday that if the Dominion-provincial conference in Ottawa December 9 does not evolve some method to relieve municipalities of financial burdens he is "prepared to recommend refusal to pay interest in order to carry out essential services."

"I will not hesitate to suggest that course," the mayor added.

The mayor's statement came during discussion of taxation broached in a letter from Ward One ratepayers which urged investigation of Ward One assessments and proposed that property be taxed on its classification.

Alderman G. C. Miller explained the matter of civic taxation and assessment was being studied by the budget committee.

Mayor McGeer stated taxation and other problems had been discussed by a council delegation with the provincial government at Victoria last week.

The government, he said, while sympathetic, "will co-operate with us in our problem only to the extent to which the national government is prepared to co-operate with the provincial."

Nazis Planning Church Arrests

Associated Press
Berlin, Nov. 26.—A spokesman for the Bishop of Berlin said yesterday the arrest by Nazis of many functionaries of the Catholic Church was anticipated.

If this expectation should be realized, he added, it would be a more severe blow to Catholicism in Germany than even exchange smuggling trials.

The comment followed the "protective arrest" of Prelate Banasch, associate of the Bishop of Berlin, in a raid on his private rooms several days ago.

Wheat Movements Show Decrease

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Nov. 26.—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics to-day reported wheat marketings in the prairie provinces in the week ended November 15 amounted to 3,727,945 bushels, a decrease of 1,154,691 compared with the previous week. During the corresponding week last year receipts were 6,219,496 bushels.

Marketing by provinces during the week with last year's figures in brackets follows: Manitoba 415,321 bushels (240,829); Saskatchewan 1,854,726 (2,623,732); Alberta 1,857,898 (3,254,915).

Receipts by provinces from August 1 to November 15, with last year's figures in brackets follow: Manitoba 14,032,601 bushels (25,341,892); Saskatchewan 27,223,185 (70,478,233); Alberta 24,255,996 (37,719,048). Total for fifteen weeks ended November 15, with the figures for the corresponding period 1934 in brackets 155,513,761 bushels (133,599,774).

REGINA ELECTS LABOR MAYOR

Ald. A. C. Ellison Wins Over C. Rink, Mayor For Two Years

Canadian Press
Regina, Nov. 26.—Final figures in the majority election, completed early to-day, show Alderman A. C. Ellison, Labor candidate, elected by a majority of 728 over Mayor Cornelius Rink. Mr. Rink was defeated after holding office for two years.

Ellison polled a total of 4,314 votes; Rink, 3,586. With Alderman Charles Dixon receiving 2,782 ballots. Far behind were E. B. McNis, with 483; Robert Hick, with 257, and John McCarthy with seventy-three.

Strong Labor backing for Ellison was indicated in the returns. Out of ten seats in the city council Labor will hold five, a complete council being re-elected this year due to the ward system again being put into force.

Aldermen who ran with Labor support were: C. M. Fines, P. Mikkelsen, G. N. Monies, T. G. McManus and J. Toothill. Fines and Monies sat in the last council.

SASKATOON ELECTION

Saskatoon, Nov. 26.—Mayor R. M. Pinder was re-elected to-day by a record-breaking majority of 3,021, defeating his sole opponent, John Egge, a Co-operative Commonwealth Federation candidate in the last provincial election. The vote was: Pinder, 4,737; Egge, 1,716.

MOOSE JAW ELECTION

Moose Jaw, Sask., Nov. 26.—Mayor Harris Johnston was re-elected yesterday by a second term by a majority of close to 900.

SUTHERLAND ELECTION

Sutherland, Sask., Nov. 26.—Mayor A. H. Gardiner of Sutherland was re-elected yesterday for a fourth consecutive term. He defeated James Blair, former councillor, by 170 to 149.

WINNIPEG COUNCIL

Winnipeg, Nov. 26.—Leftist control of Winnipeg's city council and school board was assured for 1936 when counting of ballots in Friday's civic election under proportional representation was completed yesterday evening.

Mayor John Queen, M.P.P., Independent Labor Party, will have the casting vote on the council with Leftists holding nine seats and Rightists nine seats—the same as the present year.

On the school board, Labor, with the assistance of Andrew Blüchert, Communist, will hold control of the school board as it did this year. The tie-up will be six L.L.P. members, one Communist, one Independent Labor and seven Independents.

CUTTEN WINS GRAIN APPEAL

But U.S. Government Will Appeal to Supreme Court Against His Pit Trading

Associated Press
Washington, Nov. 26.—Agriculture Department officials planned to-day to appeal to the United States Supreme Court in their effort to bar Arthur W. Cutten, millionaire grain speculator, from the trading pits for two years.

They also indicated they would seek to have Congress amend a section of the Grain Futures Act under which a federal circuit court of appeals at Chicago reversed yesterday a government suspension order issued last March.

The decision of the court at Chicago yesterday was written by Judge Evan Evans.

Mr. Cutten, a native of Guelph, Ont., and known as the man who owned more wheat at one time than any other man in history, was suspended in March last by the grain futures administration. He was charged with having failed to report his grain holdings in 1930 and 1931 for the purpose of manipulating prices.

The decision of the Court of Appeals at Chicago was based on a verb form in the Grain Futures Act, which provides penalties for any person who "is violating any of the provisions of this act or is attempting to manipulate the market price of any grain."

Orrille Taylor, Cutten's attorney, contended the futures administration was powerless to suspend the trader, because the charges brought involved alleged violations two years old. The court upheld that view.

Church Opposes "Mercy Killings"

Catholics in Britain Urged By Bishop to Fight Euthanasia Movement

Associated Press
London, Nov. 26.—A group of Catholics, led by the Bishop of Fella, have opened a national campaign to stop the "mercy killing" movement.

Lord Moylan, one of the country's leading surgeons, recently launched a campaign to establish legally the right to die of persons suffering from incurable diseases.

Leaders of the opposition urged Roman Catholics in Great Britain to fight Lord Moylan's programme, and the Bishop, in a speech, declared:

"To associate a 'mercy' killing with the medical profession and the sickroom with the lethal chamber is something so surprising and shocking that most people cannot accept the suggestion of such proposed legislation as serious."

"Such a change in the law would welcome would be wife murderers and other potential criminals."

BUFFALOES TO BE SHOT

Edmonton, Nov. 26.—Lordly buffalo in Wainwright Park and Elk Island Park will fall next week as crack riflemen open fire on the thundering herds. No fewer than 1,000 of these animals will be shot at Wainwright and half the number at Elk Island.

Before long, the meat is expected to be offered on markets both in the east and west.

The contract for killing these animals has been awarded to a packing company whose tender was accepted by the federal authorities.

A CLOSE CALL

THE TASCHEREAU GOVERNMENT IN Quebec yesterday won its fifth consecutive victory, but by a bare margin. At the dissolution of the last Legislature the Premier commanded the support of sixty-one members out of a total membership of ninety, while there were nineteen vacancies. Hence, the opposition numbered only ten. In the next House he will lead a majority party of forty-seven Liberals and presumably one Independent-Liberal, which will be confronted by an opposition which, according to present indications, will number twenty-six Action Libérale Nationale and sixteen Conservative members. On the basis of the present returns, therefore, the government majority will be five, counting a Speaker and assuming that the lone Independent-Liberal is not lured into the opposition in a critical division by persuasive Paul Gouin, leader of the Action Libérale Nationale.

In spite of the narrow margin by which the victory was won, it is evident that the Taschereau government is a hardy political plant. With Manitoba it shares the distinction of being the only government in Canada to remain in office throughout the economic depression. The party whose name it bears has been in office for thirty-eight years, while the Taschereau administration itself has been in office for fifteen years. So old a ship must carry a heavy weight of barnacles on its hull, but even at that it would have weathered the storm more easily if it had not been for a formidable mutiny within the party ranks throughout the province.

The insurgents were young Liberals who, under the leadership of Paul Gouin, son of Sir Lomer Gouin, eminent Canadian Liberal, who had been Premier of Quebec before Mr. Taschereau took office, and grandson of Honor Mercier, an even more eminent Liberal Premier in the annals of Quebec politics. This ardent element formed the Action Libérale Nationale and made an alliance with the Conservatives under Maurice Duplessis. The strategy was sound enough, although the fusion between young Quebec Liberals, advocating what they described as real Liberalism and attacking what they branded as the reactionary Conservatism of the Taschereau government, and the Quebec Conservatives, must have been rather bewildering to outsiders. Under the terms of the alliance if the opposition were successful the leader of the Conservatives would have been Premier, but the majority of his ministry would have been named by the Action Libérale Nationale. This would have meant in practical effect a government dominated by the young Liberals under Paul Gouin and the Conservative leader would have been little more than a figurehead.

The Gouin element sought to justify its revolt by contending that the Taschereau government, however it designated itself, was in practice more conservative than the orthodox Conservatives, that it was dominated by the big financial and industrial interests of Montreal, in whose councils the Premier himself was a regular attendant. They declared that they would emancipate the province from this thralldom, and eradicate the influence of these interests from the administration of provincial affairs. If they keep their ranks closed in the next Legislature, and if the Conservatives who were elected remain in this rather unusual combination, they will be able to exercise a marked influence upon administration and legislation. But while the two elements were able to co-operate for the purpose of the election, the bonds may be looser in the House.

Premier Taschereau is a very able political tactician, he has powerful influences behind him, and the curiously-mated groups which will compose the opposition may not continue to be as harmonious as they have been in the early flush of their alliance. If they were not, it would not be the first time a fusion of this character arose on the political horizon, and then flashed brightly across the sky into extinction. It was the younger Liberal element in Quebec, led by Henri Bourassa, calling itself Nationalist and attacking the Laurier naval programme, which gave the federal Conservative party its victory in the election of 1911, but it did not remain long with its Conservative allies.

As for the Quebec Conservatives, they made a gain of only five over their number of successful candidates in the election of 1931. As a political force they have recorded very negligible headway in the last thirty years, and there is little prospect of their assumption of office through their own efforts for a very long time. If the Taschereau government does not survive its new term of office it will be because of the irruption of the Action Libérale Nationale headed by Paul Gouin.

THE LUSITANIA

THEY HAVE FOUND THE SUBMERGED hulk of the Lusitania, at last, deep in the water off Kinsale Head, and divers have gone to the bottom and brought back rusty rivetheads for proof; and the whole triumphant exploit makes up one of the saddest commentaries imaginable on the state of human affairs to-day.

Consider the implications of this whole story of the Lusitania. There was, first of all, the ship itself; a marvelous triumph of human intelligence, of human mastery of raw iron and brute force, a floating city, more comfortable and luxurious than any palace that Caesar or Pharaoh ever saw, capable of bridging the Atlantic in less than a week.

The mere fact that mankind had reached a point where it could conceive, design, and build such a ship spoke volumes about the development of human intelligence.

Next, there was the Lusitania's sinking. A submarine lay in wait in the waters, unseen by its victim, and a man peered through an arrangement of mirrors to draw a bead on a ship which, in actual fact, he could not really see at all—for he was twenty feet under water at the time.

A torpedo was released, it sped through the water some hundreds of yards as accurately as though

Death himself perched on its nose as a helmsman, and the Lusitania went to the bottom.

There, again, was another marvel of skill; for a submarine and its torpedo are, between them, supreme evidence of the cleverness with which we can manipulate inanimate materials.

And, lastly, a salvage boat has found the wreck, men have gone down some scores of fathoms to look at it, and in the course of time every compartment will be examined, valuables will be recovered, and Davy Jones's locker itself will be thoroughly and competently rifled.

And now think of this: the human race as a whole, had the brains, the imagination, and the power to do all these remarkable things; to design and build a marvel like the Lusitania, to strike her down with a weapon almost incredibly ingenious, and to come back two decades later and explore the sunken wreckage—but we have not at any time had the simple good sense and good will to use all this ingenuity and skill to our own advantage!

We devoted quite as much thought and effort to the submarine and its torpedo as to the Lusitania itself. We learned how to equip ourselves for a good life, and then wrecked our equipment; and to-day the best thing we can do is send divers to the bottom to have a peek at the wreckage.

This Lusitania story will tell future historians all they need to know about us; that we won mastery over everything but—ourselves.

BRITISH HOUSE OPENS

WHEN THE NEW BRITISH PARLIAM ent opened to-day, the government party once again found itself more than 400 strong—too large a contingent for its own side of the House of Commons. Some of its members again had to take seats on the opposition, or left, side of Mr. Speaker. Two Ministers to-day, indeed, had to find seats on the steps leading to the Speaker's throne. As was only to be expected, Premier Baldwin received an enthusiastic welcome from all parts of the chamber as he made his entrance. The chief opposition, that of Labor, will have as its leader Major C. R. Attlee, while opposition Liberals have selected as their parliamentary leader Sir Archibald Sinclair who will take the post formerly held by Sir Herbert Samuel, who was defeated at the general election on November 14. Sir Archibald, by the way, was Sir Herbert's chief lieutenant.

With its very large following the government will be able to continue its policies and keep the promises it made before the election. It obtained a decisive mandate from the electorate to look to the country's defenses and to continue its active support of the League of Nations and all its works devoted to the cause of peace, with eventual considerable limitation of armaments. Some of the government's policies will be subjected to strenuous attacks from the Labor opposition which, in this House, will be three times as strong as it was in the last; but with a clear ministerial majority of 260, anti-government forces will not be able to do very much more than talk.

On the subject of talk, incidentally, Mr. E. A. Fitzroy, elected Speaker for the fourth time this afternoon, gave a little homely advice to the members of the new House, recalling that when last elected he had urged shorter speeches. To-day, however, his advice was chiefly regarding the conduct of debates. A debate, said he, ought to be a debate... "having the qualities of cut and thrust." What he objects to is the tendency for debates to become the delivery of a series of set speeches which rob the proceedings of the House of much of their interest.

The job of a Speaker of any Parliament is no sinecure. Not only has he to be the very essence of impartiality and to be better perfect in all matters of procedure, but he also has to sit on his throne and listen to these series of set speeches and to bear an outward appearance betokening his complete interest in the matter they contain. Perhaps the day will come some time when legislators will realize that much of their talk is quite useless, but expensive for the public purse.

A SIGNIFICANT ENDORSEMENT

IF THE RESULT OF THE RECENT BY- election in the provincial constituency of Humboldt in Saskatchewan may be taken as a fair indication, it is that that province is still as solidly Liberal as it was in the summer of last year when the Conservative Coalition government was completely wiped out.

The contest in Humboldt arose from the death early this year of Mr. James Hogan who defeated Mr. Joseph Burton, the standard-bearer of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, last year, by 2,634 votes on a ballot total of more than 8,000. Mr. Burton again tried his luck against Dr. J. C. King, the government candidate, and in a vote of less than 6,000 was snowed under by a majority of 2,763, losing his deposit into the bargain. This was the first electoral test for the government since the general election.

The C.C.F. obviously has not found very much favor in the prairie provinces. At the recent federal general election, for example, the party only elected two from Manitoba and two from Saskatchewan.

JANET LEARNS ABOUT HEROES

At the table sat her hero, spreading butter on his bread, And I thought for just a minute Janet's eyes would leave her head, For they popped with admiration for her favorite movie star And she thrilled with keen excitement to be near and yet so far. As I've said, with eyes wide open she took every movement in, Then she suddenly discovered he had egg stain on his chin!

She looked at me astounded. She could not believe it true, And she whispered to me: "Daddy, he eats eggs the same as you!" See his elbows on the table! That's the very way you sit, And his spoon is in his coffee. Oh, I don't like that a bit! I'd supposed he would be different. From the shows I've seen him in. I never thought he ever had an egg stain on his chin."

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

After having filed with the government plans for the first twenty miles of the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway on Vancouver Island, D. D. Mann left for the mainland last evening en route east. General Manager McLeod and T. G. Holt, executive agent, went with him, although the latter expects to be back in Victoria very shortly.

On motion of Alderman Bishop, seconded by Alderman Raymond, it was decided at last evening's meeting of the streets committee of the City Council to recommend the introduction of a by-law providing for the widening of Yates Street, between Broad and Government Streets. In this connection City Engineer Smith has prepared a report in which it is estimated that the undertaking will cost $203,770.

A lively tilt between Alderman Bannerman and Mayor Morley was the feature of the proceedings at last evening's meeting of the City Council. The former charged the mayor with having embarked on vote-catching expedition, and this was strenuously denied by His Worship.

With a large number of the members of the Y.M.C.A. in attendance, the hall in the Duck Block, Broad Street, which has been leased by the association for the carrying on of the gymnastic classes until the new building at the corner of Blanshard and View Streets is ready for occupancy, was informally opened last night. No programme was prepared for this event, but the men and boys mingled together and had a fine time, indulging in a game of basketball and other exercises.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS SOCIETY

To the Editor:—May I, through your paper, bring to the attention of the citizens of Greater Victoria the public meeting that is being sponsored by the League of Nations Society in Victoria? This is to be held on Thursday evening, November 28, in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium and to the executive invites both members of the society and the general public.

All who are carefully following present-day international developments, and are endeavoring to secure an intelligent and unbiased understanding of the work of the League at Geneva, will doubtless welcome this additional opportunity of hearing the current world situation revealed.

DICKENS AND CIVILIZATION

To the Editor:—Mr. Leonard really should not complain that the Bible and Shakespeare were being at him without provocation. He has forgotten that he explained the "civilized man's" aversion to Dickens by asserting that Dickens belongs to an age "largely dead"—whatever that may mean? However, Mr. Leonard how quickly abandons his position, and agrees that all of us might benefit by reading the Bible and Shakespeare far more than we do—a trenchant criticism of "civilized man." Andre Maurois, whom Mr. Leonard doubtless knows and possibly respects as a French writer of some eminence, says the same of Dickens.

It is, indeed, as Mr. Leonard says, difficult to see why Charles Dickens should be above criticism. As a matter of fact, he isn't. For the past forty years or more he has plodded cheerfully along through all kinds of it. Heavyweights have swiped at him, lightweights have poked at him, beanstalks have crowded over him—perhaps prematurely, and his best friends have admitted regretfully that he brought a lot of it on himself. Dickens is not above criticism, and it is very plain that he is not beneath it.

Meanwhile, he is still read. "Not by civilized people," Mr. Leonard may retort, in which case I would like him to define the term; also the term "entertainment," which, pending Mr. Leonard's elucidation, is perhaps inadequate as applied to the prime function of the modern novel. So we may presently arrive at an estimate of the qualities which make for permanence in fiction and of Dickens's chances of continued survival.

Now for M. Maurois, addressing the more civilized sections of his countrymen to whom Dickens has long been familiar. His epigrammatic comment on taste and his final sentence are, I think, peculiarly relevant to this discussion:

"Doubtless it is to subtle novelists that we men to-day, the novel has just discovered regions which seem to us new. Preoccupied with the results of its soundings, we are a bit disdainful of its past forms. To read all of Dickens is, for the Frenchman of 1927, a strange and, at times, a difficult enterprise. He finds such a mixture of puerility and genius, of genuine emotion and sentimentality, that he frequently halts, irritated and on edge. But let us recognize that it is not the best side of our nature that thus denies Dickens. It is our pride. It is the delicious and dangerous habit we have acquired from living in a country where, for three centuries, social life has taught us the art of saying things rapidly, with grace and propriety. This is as it should be. Taste is an exquisite quality, provided it does not destroy the very material which it should adorn."

But, when we want to renew contact with the great, simple, human emotions, let us not hesitate to open Dickens. Mr. Pickwick is still young and vigorous. And if Santa Claus is not dead, neither is Dickens. Each, no doubt, will live as long as the other. Dickens, exponent of the Christian civilization of the west in all its side-stepping any further attempt to separate the pace-setting intercollegiate class, for the time being and on the basis of latest performances, here is this week's football ranking list:

THREE TEAMS RANKED FIRST

By ALAN GOULD

New York, Nov. 26.—Definitely

1. Minnesota, Princeton and Texas

Christian.

4. Southern Methodist.

5. Louisiana State.

6. Alabama.

7. Stanford.

8. Ohio State.

9. California.

10. Pittsburgh.

So far as this department is concerned, now that nearly all the main returns have been posted, there is no definite difference among the three teams bracketed at top. Minnesota is there to stay, having finished its second straight unbeaten season, as the class of the middle west. Princeton has Yale to play but should win decisively. Texas Christian, gathering momentum as it makes the stretch drive, looks now to have too much power for Southern Methodist in this year's southwest headliner.

INJURIES CRIPPLE

Southern Methodist may recuperate, but it appears the "pony express" has been slowed up and severely crippled by injuries. After setting a sensational pace for several weeks, S.M.U. was hard pressed to beat Baylor, minus the services of several outstanding stars, while Texas Christian was having a field day at the expense of Rice last Saturday. Our southwest scouts report T.C.U. will be a favorite this week to derail the "pony express" and strengthen its claims to a Rose Bowl invitation.

Meanwhile there is the debate over the respective merits of Minnesota and Princeton, two teams with spotless records and claims to national championship recognition at least equal to anything the southwest can produce. Since they cannot meet, unfortunately, in post-season combat, the argument is strictly academic, particularly as the lines of comparison are limited and not altogether trustworthy.

Human and Equine Bluebloods on Parade, Horse Show Opens Manhattan Social Season

By BETSY SCHUYLER
New York, Nov. 26.—The new social season is in the saddle. It needed only the opening of the National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden to verify suspicions that the much multiplied "400" had returned to the orchid standard in a boom-time way—that sumptuousness again had become a household word in the smart precincts of Park Avenue and the mansions surrounding Central Park.

Not only in splendor, but in numbers the society turnout beat all records. And in the arena, the handsome horses and natty riders add the thrills that cap a superlative spectacle, while in the stalls the country's most beautiful horses whinny impatiently for their chance to strut their stuff before the applauding throngs.

Magnificently furred and resplendent in sparkling gems and colorful fashions, by their presence society women enriched the spectacle that is the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden in New York. Shown on their way to their boxes at the arena's edge above are, left to right, Mrs. Byron C. Foy, the former Thelma Chrysler; Mrs. Verne Z. Reed, Helen Jepson, blonde Metropolitan Opera star; and Mrs. Reed Albee. Below, Mrs. Edgar Scott stands at the head of Lincoln, whom she rode to a spectacular comeback.

WHERE HORSE IS KING

Downstairs in the Garden cellar white ties and orchids are strictly de trop. Here the horse rules completely and the real yarn of the show is spun. More than half a thousand jumpers, hunters, saddle and harness animals, collected from six nations, are taking part in the current exhibition. They swallow oats by the bushel and hay by the bale. Stalls have been erected over every available inch of space. This year there were so many entries that some of the animals had to be quartered in a livery stable used by mounted policemen near the Garden—the last equine oasis in Manhattan's motor mad mid-town.

Between these stalls are ribbon hung "tack" rooms jammed with saddles, bridles, blankets, riding crops, several coats and camp chairs and generally a radio. Here trainers, groomers, handlers and oftentimes owners sit quietly enjoying a stirrup cup while awaiting the loud speaker's summons to the arena.

It is down here amid pawings, neighings, stampings and an occasional loud kick against a plank that the character of the champions are truly weighed and catalogued.

A MILITARY INVASION

The military teams in this show are from Canada, France, Ireland, Holland, Chile and, of course, the United States. All have been here before and know the ropes thoroughly. Captain Eduardo Yanez, of Chile, gallily caparisoned in a sky blue jacket with gold epaulettes, practices his English on the American grooms every time he comes downstairs. "Zee nuts, Zee nuts, Zee nuts," says the captain, smiling after his little Calique is led in sporting a blue ribbon.

Captain Carl Raguse, the American star, explains that while the United States mounts—Ugry, Tanbark, Dakota and others—cost only $150 when bought by the Army, they have received a million dollars' worth of schooling in the show ring. "The Army takes years to train a good jumper and he is barnstormed from Fort Riley to Toronto before he hits the Garden. By the time they come in here they are worth a lot more than $150," says he.

And so go the real stories of the show. The real picture of what the horsemen have to do before they hit that floodlighted arena. There is a smutty that is always busy. Bandages are constantly being applied to sore legs and feeding times varied to suit the horses' moods. It's the trickiest art in the world, this showing a horse in the National. And not half of its subtle practices are demonstrated before the roar of the crowd.

SCENE OF GLAMOUR

In the arena the glaring lights shine on festoons of orange and black, and shuttling in the aisles are politely busy ushers in smart yellow and grey uniforms. Top hats, white ties and tails for the male spectators. And as for the smartly gowned women—Slick, blonde Helen Jepson looked especially lovely in a coral gown and white ermine wrap. Mrs. Reed Albee, wearing a white dress, white wrap and sparkling diamonds, stood out vividly.

Mrs. James A. Farley, accompanied by her Postmaster-General husband, had on bottle-green velvet with voluminous lace sleeves, a mink wrap and pearl earrings. After the show the Farleys and a large party danced in the Persian Room at the Plaza.

In spite of all the talk about renaissance colors and renaissance jewelry being important in the fashion scheme of things, black was the most widely worn color at the Horse Show. Barbara Chisholm chose a black satin gown with black velvet wrap. Mrs. Byron C. Foy had on black quilted taffeta and a silver fox cape. Her coiffure was done up with lacquered curls.

Mrs. John Hay Whitney, in a formal riding habit, sat in her box with some of the officers of the Irish team. Jock Whitney came in rather late. He had spent the earlier part of the evening watching the preview of "Jumbo," the fantastic circus in which he has a heavy financial interest.

Joan Macomber wore a red crepe dress, shoes, ermine cape, diamond clip earrings and bright red polish on fingers and toenails (no stockings, if you please). Mrs. Carl Schuster, the former Jane Storr, also wore red and topped it with an effective black wrap with gold coin buttons up the front. Her black hair was drawn severely backward from her brow.

Speaking of hair, the coiffure experts must have a busy afternoon before the show. Among the women in evening dress there was scarcely a head that wasn't curled, lacquered and swirled within an inch of its life. Jeweled ornaments and tiaras, however, were few and far between.

GYROS LEARN POLICE WORK

Responsibilities of Provincial Constable Told By Sergeant Roger Peachey

The many difficulties and heavy responsibilities of the provincial constable in remote settlements were vividly described to members of the Gyro Club at a supper meeting in Spencer's dining-room last night by Sergeant Roger Peachey of the Provincial Police.

Taking as his subject, "An inside story of police work in British Columbia," Sergeant Peachey traced a typical day in the life of a provincial constable.

Coming down to his office in the morning with the hope of a clear day to clean up the many reports, returns and requisitions which he had to make out, he received a phone call from a store-owner saying his store had been broken into during the night.

LONG INVESTIGATION

First he had to search the place for clues, in itself a slow business involving a great deal of knowledge. Clues could be found in the shape of fingerprints, small objects left behind by the burglar, even particles of dust, in marks on doors or windows, and in footprints outside. Then he must interview all potential witnesses.

Next he must compile a list of the stolen goods and make report to the nearest N.C.O. This report was passed on to headquarters and relayed by radio all over the province.

After that, the constable had to proceed to arrest the suspects, and lay an information or charge against them—work which in cities was done by the city prosecutor, a man with legal training. This information must be worded without a loophole. Often cases had been lost on a single misplaced word in the charge.

The charge had then to be taken before a justice and sworn, and a warrant obtained, after which the constable himself brought the suspects into town.

HIS OWN PROSECUTOR

In town he must conduct the whole case for the prosecution, fighting lawyers on their own territory, bringing his own witnesses and making up his own brief.

It was only in murder and other very serious cases that the constable received any assistance.

In addition to such criminal cases the constable had to hunt for missing persons, and in many cases chase down to their origin false alarm scare stories.

RADIO SYSTEM

Sergeant Peachey described the Provincial Police's extensive short-wave radio system, the equipment for which had been made by members of the force, and its wide uses. It was the only radio system of its kind operated by a provincial police department, he said.

The scientific end of crime detection had been somewhat exaggerated, he said. Scientific methods had long been used by the Provincial Police, but in the majority of cases they preferred to call in an outside pathologist, biologist or analyst, because the evidence of an outsider generally carried more weight in court, being presumed to be less likely to be partial.

He told how the fingerprint system had been co-ordinated by the department during the last ten years, and how it was possible to check fingerprints under the present system of classification in as little as three minutes.

Following Sergeant Peachey's address, club members joined in an extensive entertainment—programmed with Neil Grant as master of ceremonies.

Features of the programme included vocal solos by Cliff Prescott, a fish story competition, community singing led by Bill Hudson, a spelling bee conducted by Bud Hocking and a bridge tournament.

The fish story contest honors fell to Louis Glazan, largely because his tale was one of the few actually connected with fish. The others were mostly unprintable. He received a can of salmon.

A team headed by Angus McIntyre, vice-president of the club, defeated another led by Waldo Skilling, president, in the spelling bee.

Honors in the bridge contest fell to Led Woodhouse and Louis Glazan.

Boys' and girls' agricultural clubs are to be organized by the Government of South Africa.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

The French language, laws and customs prevail on the mountainous island of Mauritius that lies some distance east of Madagascar in the Indian Ocean. But Great Britain has owned this bleak spot since 1814, and now is considering its use as a naval base.

Discovered in 1507 by the Portuguese, the island was left uninhabited until the Dutch came along in 1598. They named it Mauritius, after Count Maurice of Nassau. But they left in 1710 after several failures to colonize. Soon the French took over the island, imported thousands of African slaves, and introduced sugar planting. They changed the name to Ile de France, but the British restored the former name when they took control. To-day Port Louis, principal city, is a melting pot of French, English, Indians, Africans, Chinese, Malays and others.

Mauritius was one of the earliest countries to issue postage stamps. The first stamp was marked "Post Office," instead of "Post Paid," in error, and is worth several thousand dollars as a result. The stamp shown here pictures the island's coat of arms and is quite common.

BETTER COAST SERVICE URGED

Attorney-General to Discuss Rescue and Search Work at Ottawa

Improvement in the Federal Government's coastguard service in British Columbia waters will be urged at Ottawa by Attorney-General Sloan, it was learned this morning.

This is being advocated owing to heavy costs, both through time and expense, placed on the British Columbia police in connection with sea tragedies and mishaps.

Since the British Columbia force built up its system of patrol launches on the coast, they have frequently been called out for marine accidents, entailing expenses for work which is not properly their responsibility.

While the Dominion Government maintains lifesaving stations at Bamfield and Tofino these are not sufficient to service the entire coast, it is stated.

Service of the police launches has been required more especially in cases of persons reported lost or missing at sea. In the last five years there have been two-score cases of this kind where the British Columbia police played a large part in the search.

Brentwood

South Saanich W.A. to St. Stephen's and St. Mary's churches have completed arrangements for their annual Christmas dinner to be held at the Women's Institute Hall, Brentwood, on Wednesday, November 27. Tea will be served during the afternoon and a musical programme has been arranged. The home cooking stall will be in charge of Mrs. D. B. Hodgson and Mrs. W. Q. Wallace, fancywork, Mrs. G. L. Sydnor; novelty stalls, Mrs. H. R. Gale, Miss Gale, Mrs. Ian Douglas and Miss Hilda Butterfield. Tea will be under the convenship of Mrs. F. Turgoose and Mrs. E. Rochon.

New telephone books will be issued in Victoria at the beginning of the year, it was announced by F. C. Peterson, head of the British Columbia Telephone Company here. The list of names would be closed to-day and the data sent to the printers for compilation, he said.

BIG MARKET SEEN IN WEST

Bruce McBean, Wheat Authority, Sees Surplus Disappearing

An enormous replacement market will be open to merchants and manufacturers on the Canadian prairies once the agriculturists regain buying power, said Bruce McBean, representative of Liverpool grain interests, who has been resting a few days in Victoria after a tour of the west.

For years Mr. McBean has been one of the best known grain figures in the Winnipeg grain trade and has regularly covered the United States wheat areas for the English importers.

He said new equipment, building and supplies of every kind were needed on the prairies and would be purchased once there was money in sight. Dealing with the Canadian wheat surplus of the last few years and the cost to the government in carrying it, Mr. McBean said: "Canada increased her wheat production area from 15,000,000 to 27,000,000 acres, and even now under depression conditions we have 22,000,000 acres under wheat."

"It may be that we will have to reduce our acreage more if we are not to be faced with these recurrent surpluses that are such a burden to the government to carry."

However, Mr. McBean said it has been worrying Canada for the last couple of years would soon be removed, because of short crops elsewhere and world political conditions.

He said the Canadian crop stood at around 250,000,000 bushels, of which 50,000,000 bushels was non-millable. This would leave a net of 200,000,000 millable wheat, which, with the carry-over from last year of 200,000,000, would give a total of 400,000,000 millable wheat in Canada. Out of this total, he said, 110,000,000 bushels would be required for seed and feed, leaving 290,000,000 bushels available for the trade.

WORLD DEMAND

As for the world demand for the current year, Mr. McBean said Broomhall placed it at 540,000,000 bushels. To meet it there would be the 290,000,000 bushels from Canada, 140,000,000 from Australia and the Argentine combined, and 40,000,000 from Russia and the Danube.

"This gives us a total of 470,000,000 bushels of wheat to fill a hole of 540,000,000," Mr. McBean went on. "In addition to the requirements enumerated, the United States will take 50,000,000 to 100,000,000 bushels of our wheat."

"Because of this situation, I think the world situation in wheat has never been stronger in recent years. What has been lacking in the way of better prices in this country is the speculation to discount this situation."

Mr. McBean said the war cloud hanging over Europe strengthened the wheat situation.

"The return of the National government in England with their policy of rearmament means they are going to arm to the teeth over there and that in turn means war eventually," he went on.

He said the Canadian political situation now indicated that Canada would move to get her wheat out into the markets of the world, but he urged Canadians when they conceived plans for large profits from the English buyers to remember that "when you are trading with Englishmen you are trading with real horse traders."

ANTI-VIVI VOTE WAS INFLUENCE

Elections in Canada and England Affected; Much Business Discussed

H. Webster presided at a recent board meeting of the local anti-vivisection society when a message of condolence was voted to the family of Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, prominent anti-vivisectionist.

Tom Groves, M.P., London, acknowledged a letter of congratulation from Victoria on the consistent interest he takes in supporting the movement in the British House of Commons. The recent elections in Canada and in England were, it was stated, considerably influenced by the anti-vivisection vote.

Miss Killo, honorary secretary, read a letter from the Vivisection Investigation League, New York, asking her to attend a conference on vivisection to be held in Washington, D.C., in January.

The World League, London, with which the local society is associated, reported cruelty used in obtaining lizard and snake skins for commercial purposes.

Further correspondence was read from Dr. A. S. Millard, formerly M.H.O. at Cyprus, regarding the practice of vivisection in Shantung University. In this connection a motion of censure was passed upon ministers, churches and missionary organizations who supported the practice of animal experimentation in China.

"Are the standards of modern education unethical?" will be the subject for the next home-meeting to be held at the home of Madame Vivron, Olympic Apartments, 1120 May Street, on Tuesday, December 3 at 8:15 p.m. All members, friends and interested persons are invited to attend.

The St. Mary's, Oak Bay, Men's Guild will hold its bi-weekly meeting in St. Mary's Hall, Yates Street, next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. A. B. Hudson will give another of his interesting address. All men of the congregation are cordially invited.

What Tourists Think of City

"Don't Americanize it, Keep it Strictly English," Some Say; Canadian Cigarettes and Shoes Are Boosted.

Following are extracts from questionnaires sent out by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, requesting opinions and suggestions from tourists who visited Vancouver Island during the summer:

"I hope in your attempt to make your island more attractive to tourists you will not commercialize it. You are delightful as you are. Keep simple, leisurely, English and friendly. Keep things English and strictly Victorian—afternoon tea and such things. Don't try to be smart and American. We think we would like to live there."

"We hunted and hunted for the Publicity Bureau, as my daughter had her heart set on a seagull sticker."

"I feel transportation on boat from Vancouver to Victoria rather high to attract visitors."

"I came back to enjoy the English charm of years ago, which I find being Americanized. We go to Victoria for a change of atmosphere."

"We enjoyed Canadian cigarettes and wish we could get them in the United States."

"We stayed two days and spent $39.00."

"Was delighted to obtain Canadian shoes that were a perfect fit for me. It is impossible to obtain any in the United States. So when they wear out I will pay you another visit."

"We started north with no schedule or destination. We saw the sign not far from here: '661 miles to Victoria,' and we said, 'why not?' and so on we went, our only regret being our stay was too short."

"We see no place where we can suggest improvement in the fine, courteous manner in which tourists are received on Vancouver Island."

Canadian Legion Frolic Attracted Large Throng

Over 2,000 Veterans and Friends Celebrated Legion's Tenth Birthday at Crystal Garden Yesterday Evening

The tenth birthday of the Canadian Legion was gaily celebrated by hundreds of veterans and friends in the two ballrooms of the Crystal Garden yesterday evening. All across Canada, in city, town and village, at the crossroads' halls and in tiny schoolhouses in isolated places, this great occasion was celebrated.

Victoria's celebration attracted in the neighborhood of 2,000 people. Dancing was indulged in and there were games galore for those who did not care to dance or who wished a little variety in their entertainment. Wheels of fortune and house-house games, "fortunes" being dispensed at the discretion of the hosts, were in charge of these carnival features.

As a further entertainment feature, selections were played during the evening by the Canadian Legion (British Columbia Branch) Band, under the direction of Charles Baker, the conductor. Lieutenant-Governor J. W. Fordham Johnson called during the evening to tender his personal congratulations to the Legion. Guests who had spoken at the Pro Patria dinner earlier in the evening were also guests, being joined for the frolic by their ladies. Among the specially-invited visitors were Sir Percy Lake, grand president of the Canadian Legion, and Lady Lake. Commander and Mrs. O. G. Jones, Brigadier and Mrs. O. J. MacDonald, Brigadier-General J. G. Austin, Capt. and Mrs. W. Hobart Moison, Major and Mrs. David Leeming, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sloan, Capt. McBrayne, Canon and Mrs. J. Hinchliffe.

W. G. Stone, chairman of the district council, was chairman of the committee in charge of the mammoth frolic. Assisting him were C. Dill, D. O. Holmes, president of Britannia Branch; Colonel W. N. Winsby, president of Pro Patria Branch; T. Dallas, president of the Naval Veterans' Branch, and Paymaster-Captain W. J. C. Johnston.

The dance committee was composed of H. Thompson, J. Neary, P. C. Payne

Captain J. H. Rankin of Vancouver and his daughter, Miss Melba Rankin, both of whom have been spending the last week at Sooke, returned to their home on the mainland yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Raymond Kershaw of Victoria is visiting in Winnipeg for a few weeks as the guest of her son, Mr. Frank H. Kershaw.

Mrs. A. B. MacDonald has returned to her home in Vancouver after visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lane Holmes, Beach Drive, for a few days.

Mrs. G. C. Knorr of Portland, Oregon, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Knorr, 1030 Princess Avenue for the last two weeks, will leave to-morrow for her home in the United States.

Miss Ruth Jones of Island Road, who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Thos. Jones, in Vancouver over the week-end, was the guest of honor when they entertained at an "after-five" party on Saturday afternoon.

The many friends of Mrs. S. Jones, who met with an accident at her home, 715 Courtney Street, several weeks ago, will be pleased to learn she is making progress towards recovery at St. Joseph's Hospital and expects to be removed home in about a week.

Mrs. B. C. Richards and Mrs. C. D. Pender, who left early in November by motor on a trip to Medford, Oregon, returned to-day to their homes in Victoria. They attended on November 16 the wedding of Mrs. Richards' niece, Miss Dorothy Carless of Phoenix, Oregon, to Mr. Fuller Arney of Los Angeles.

Among the guests registered at the Dominion Hotel are: Mr. W. J. Geary, Mr. E. Burton, Mr. F. L. Hinchliffe, Mr. J. J. Pimm, Mr. F. Brownson, Mr. R. S. Moffatt, Mr. C. S. Strain, Mr. R. V. The Women's Auxiliary to the T.V.A. were hostesses for the occasion, entertaining the veterans to a bounteous repast, which included "turkey and all the trimmings," at tables prettily arranged with orange chrysanthemums. Seated at the head table, at which H. Gibson, president of the T.V.A. presided, were Mrs. W. Booth, president of the auxiliary, who is also president of the Provincial Command of the W.A. to the Canadian Legion; Mrs. H. Ricketts, president of Pro Patria Branch; Rev. O. L. Jull, new padre of the T.V.A., and Mrs. Jull, and F. J. Crowhurst.

Prior to the dinner, the gathering stood in silent tribute to the memory of fallen comrades, after which Mr. Jull pronounced the grace. The toast to the King was proposed by Mr. Gibson, who later raised the occasion to pay warm tribute to the Women's Auxiliary for their generous hospitality on numerous occasions. This little band of energetic women had worked indefatigably in the cause of the tuberculous veterans and it was largely through their instrumentality that the T.V.A. had been enabled to liquidate the debt on the clubhouse on Blanshard Street, which to-day was owned by the men, he announced. Mr. Gibson also recalled Sir Percy Lake's praise of the auxiliary, whom he had described as a wonderful group of women, of whom the T.V.A. should be justly proud.

In responding to the tribute, Mrs. Booth brought greetings from the Provincial Command W.A. and testified to the pleasure which the women had always experienced in their work for the T.V.A. Reference was also made to the generous support received by the auxiliary from outside friends in their many undertakings, enabling them to raise the funds which had helped the veterans acquire their clubrooms.

Club to Honor Miss Dingman

Business Women Plan Informal Reception For December 7

Tentative arrangements, subject to the approval of the guest of honor, were made by the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club at its business meeting yesterday evening to hold an informal reception in the clubrooms on Saturday evening, December 7, to honor Miss Mary Dingman of the World Y.W.C.A., Geneva.

The club will also be represented at the dinner to be held in the Empress Hotel on December 5 in Miss Dingman's honor, this function being arranged by the local Y.W.C.A. board. The club's Christmas dinner will be held at the Y.W.C.A. on Monday evening, December 16, it was decided. The programme will be left in the hands of the programme committee. It was also decided to waive the regular business meeting in December, owing to the many other functions on the club's calendar for the month, and the executive was authorized to take into consideration the form which the Christmas welfare activities will take, and to notify the members accordingly.

Miss Elsie Richardson reported the receipt of a letter from Mrs. Wherry, federation convener of the International relations committee, concerning the arrival in Canada of Mr. Harrison Brown, an authority on European affairs, and efforts will be made for the club to hear him during his expected visit to the city.

Mrs. Ross Napier of the staff of the Victoria Public Library gave a most illuminating talk on the place of the library in the community, she prefaced it with a sketch of the life of Andrew Carnegie, to whose munificent benefactions many libraries today owe their existence.

The history of the local library was briefly reviewed, special reference being made to the outstanding work of Dr. Helen Stewart, former city librarian who has been conducting important experiments for the Carnegie Foundation in the rural field in British Columbia. Mrs. Napier, who outlined the work of the library, pointed out that, out of every dollar paid in taxes by the ratepayers, only 1.2 cents went for library purposes.

Mrs. H. M. Hall, the president, presided and Miss Emily Roberts moved the grateful vote of thanks to Mrs. Napier for her interesting address.

"Messiah" Will Be Given on Dec. 18

Interest in the performance of the "Messiah" on December 18 at Christ Church Cathedral continues to grow. Programmes, which entitle holders to admission to the Cathedral, may be secured at Fletcher Bros. Music Store, Nathan H. Dodge in his book on "Famous Composers," tells the following in connection with the first performance of the "Messiah" at Dublin: "On September 12, 1741, Handel completed the score of the 'Messiah' which had occupied him in the almost incredibly short time of fourteen days.

He afterwards said to some one, speaking of composing the Hallelujah Chorus, 'I think I did see all heaven before me, and the great God himself.' His tears mingled with the ink as he penned the notes. Early in November he passed through Chester on his way to Dublin, whither he was invited by the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. At Chester, wishing to try over a number of hastily transcribed choruses, he collected some of the chorists of the cathedral to read them over. The rehearsal took place at the Golden Falcon. A printer named Janson, who had a fine bass voice, tried to read his part in the chorus, and with his trumpet he failed. Handel, says Dr. Burney, who was present, let loose his great bear upon him, and, after swearing in four or five different languages, cried out in broken English: 'You schoutrel, tit you sot deli me dat you could sing at soite!' 'Yes, Sir,' replied the unfortunate basso, and so I can, but not at first sight."

The Hudson's Bay Beaver Club will stage a masquerade dance this evening from 9 till 2 o'clock in the Shrine Hall. Cash prizes to the value of $35 will be given for the best costumes in the various classes, the Grand March to take place at 11 o'clock. Jack Baxter's eight-piece orchestra will provide the music, and refreshments will be served.

HONORED FOR WORDS—SPOKEN AND WRITTEN

Selected as the three contemporaries who are most adept at the use of spoken and written English are Lynn Fontanne (right), actress; Pearl S. Buck (centre), novelist. They were awarded gold medals by the American Academy of Arts and Letters at New York. Miss Fontanne for the most cultivated stage diction; Buck for the most cultural diction and pronunciation, and Mrs. Pearl S. Buck for her novel "The Good Earth."

HAT AS WEDDING GIFT

Nearly 1,000 presents were received altogether. One of the most original was a hat, which the bride wore when she left for the honeymoon. Her other gifts included 100 cigarette cases. She does not smoke.

The bride was given in heavy white crepe, cut on slim, modern lines, with a train of the same material and a white tulle veil surmounted by a halo-headpiece of silver intertwined with orange blossoms.

She was attended by one of the longest bridals retinues ever seen at the Abbey. There were no fewer than fourteen bridesmaids and a page boy.

BORER LITTLE PAGE

Lord Primrose, the small son of the Earl and Countess of Rosebery, who was page-boy, made it difficult for the congregation in the Abbey to preserve an appropriate gravity.

The progress of the bride's train, for one thing, was a little erratic, as Lord Primrose sometimes carried it and sometimes stood on it.

During the address of the Archbishop of York, who officiated, his attention began to wander. After gazing around him for a few moments he began to tickle the neck of Lady Elizabeth Fitzmaurice, one of the two little bridesmaids.

Lady Elizabeth tried to restrain him and the other small bridesmaid, Miss Morna Buxton, whispered in his ear. His response was to turn and tickle her neck.

The Queen attended the reception which followed at Crewe House, Curzon Street. It was one of the biggest wedding receptions London has seen for years.

Children's Leaders Council to Meet

The Children's Leaders' Council of Victoria will hold a Christmas meeting this evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Guild Room of the Memorial Hall.

Miss Anne Fountain of Vancouver will be the guest speaker, and has taken as her subject, "What Is Our Task?" Suggestions will be given for the Christmas service for each department, and a candle-lighting ceremony will also be a feature at this meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all teachers and Sunday school workers up to the junior department of all churches in the district.

Champagne was served from the "shops," as well as a variety of other liquors. In the ballroom, which opened directly on to the orange grove, dancing went on till one began to sense the approach of dawn.

The more hardy guests who stayed the course were provided with breakfast at 8 a.m., and there is no doubt a good time was had by all.

YOUNGEST DUCHESS WEDS

One of the most brilliant events of the Little Season was the wedding at Westminster Abbey of the Duke of Roxburgh, and Lady Mary Grey-Milnes, who thus became the youngest duchess in England. Lady Mary is only twenty, and the Duke is two years her senior. They are both godchildren of the King and Queen.

Lady Mary is the only daughter of the Marquis and Marchioness of Crewe. Her mother is a close friend of the Queen, and their Majesties sent Lady Mary a beautiful diamond and pearl brooch as a wedding present. To the Duke the King and Queen sent

Woman Prison Commissioner Believes in Dancing for Boys and Girls; Society Party Costs £1,000

London. — High-spirited girls who love dancing and pretty clothes found a defender in Miss Lillian Barker, former governor of a Borstal institution for girls at Aylesbury, Buckingham, and the first woman prison commissioner. But she warned them against attending "sixpenny hops."

Speaking at a meeting to encourage the mixed clubs movement, the object of which is to enable boys and girls to meet under the best conditions, she said:

"We women all know that if you want to attract a man you have to look nice. You have to have pretty clothes. I don't blame the men. I like a man to look nice."

Of boys and girls, "full of high spirits, and the loveliest people to mix with," she said.

"For this type of girl and boy, dancing is absolutely the finest thing. I would let them dance and dance and dance."

She said she loathed "sixpenny hops," many of them marked down by the worst sort of man as the likeliest of places to "pick up" a very nice girl.

Another comment was: "When you are only used to riding on an omnibus and someone says, 'I have a nice car. Would you like a ride?' It is a terrible temptation for girls to say 'Yes.' It is not for us to condemn these girls."

"THAT STORK TWADDLE"

Miss Barker pleaded for mixed clubs, and, replying to self-righteous people who said of a girl that she "picked up" her young man at the street corner, asked:

"Where is she to pick him up? In a better walk of life people speak to each other in restaurants and at dances. They don't wait for introductions any more than our girls do."

"If you can really look me in the face and say, 'Never in my life has a man interested me,' I should say, 'You are either a big liar or you had better go and see a doctor, for you are not normal.'"

"I can remember the time when boys interested me, and I am bound to say that I interested them. But I never saw the boy that I wanted to live with."

Miss Barker spoke of the day "when our mothers used to blush if we asked them certain questions. Even when you were almost grown up enough to have a baby yourself they told you that twaddle about the stork and the gooseberry bush. That brings nothing but contempt on the parents."

PARTY COSTS £1,000

The most expensive, elaborate and colorful party since Edwardian days has just been held at a house at Windsor Great Park. It is probably the most notable party ever held in the country.

There were 500 guests, it lasted for twelve hours, and it cost about £1,000. The hostess was Mrs. Reynolds Albertini, wife of the millionaire grandson of an American railway magnate and sister of Mr. Reginald Denney, the English-born Hollywood film star.

In the grounds an exact replica of a moonlit Tunis street had been built complete with white walls and dark archways, little shaded shops and glimpses of gleaming domes and minarets.

To reach it the guests passed through a grove of orange trees. The trees were real: so were the oranges hanging from the boughs, but they were tied on. The street and grove were roofed with tenting canvas, were designed and painted by Mr. and Mrs. Albertini's twenty-one-year-old son Billy with the help of a friend.

Champagne was served from the "shops," as well as a variety of other liquors. In the ballroom, which opened directly on to the orange grove, dancing went on till one began to sense the approach of dawn.

The more hardy guests who stayed the course were provided with breakfast at 8 a.m., and there is no doubt a good time was had by all.

AVOID METHODS OF TRAINING WHICH HUMILIATE CHILD

Because a method of training has seemed to be successful is not always a reason for retaining it. Sometimes, with the best intentions in the world, the mother uses methods which are far from being either universally good or successful.

I feel that is the case of "A Reader," who thinks her method has "conquered" lying.

She writes: "I have three children, two girls and a boy, and I have had little trouble with lying, and as they grew older I had little occasion to doubt their word."

NEVER PUNISH

"My method was never to punish them for telling a lie, but to make them acknowledge that they had lied and then reprove them and show them how unnecessary it was. Sometimes when I thought they were not telling the truth I bided my time and maybe by questioning, caught them in a lie and made them admit their guilt. After a while they quit lying because they would rather tell the truth than be caught in a lie."

If the mother actually knew the child had what satisfaction is there in making him admit it? Far better to just take it for granted, if she really does know it and say "It wasn't really done for you to say that," and then make the explanation she feels would fit the occasion.

HUMILIATION IS NOT GOOD

If she is in doubt, she should have faith that the child told the truth and let the child learn to rise to that faith by encouraging him not to be false to it.

The humiliation of the child in making him confess his guilt is a satisfaction no parent should demand. By so doing she forces the child to feel his inferiority, his mean smallness, and this is not what parents are for.

If we parents try to tell the truth—if we do not make the child afraid of telling the truth by harsh punishments for misbehavior, if we try to make him see facts as they appear to us and not to him and if we furnish him with possessions so that he need not possess them in fancy in order to be one with the crowd, then we have done all we can as parents to prevent the need for lying.

A.Y.P.A. COUNCIL PLANS ACTIVITY

The monthly meeting of the Victoria and District Local Council of the A.Y.P.A. was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday evening with the president, Ernest Gray in the chair.

It was decided to hold a rally service and fellowship hour on January 12 next at Christ Church Cathedral in conjunction with the celebration of the Cathedral A.Y.P.A.'s fifteenth anniversary.

Bed Blenden gave a report of the Badminton League for last season, and stated that St. Barnabas A.Y.P.A. had led. George Bennett presented the council with a beautiful silver trophy for the badminton.

R. W. Jones of the Columbia Coast Mission Board, addressed the meeting for a short period on a method of raising funds for the mission. The council decided that members of the A.Y.P.A. of Greater Victoria would undertake to collect the greater portion of the funds on behalf of the board, and it is urged that all members give full support to this campaign. Further details will be announced later.

George Bennett was appointed convener of a telephone bridge to be held from December 2 to 14. For information telephone E 1814. Bob Clark gave a report of the card party held on October 15, which proved successful. Miss M. Noreen Creelman was elected publicity secretary as a result of the resignation of Bob Clark. The new librarian is George Bennett.

A report on the recent provincial conference of A.Y.P.A. held in Vancouver was given by Len Dixon and Miss M. Holyoake. They stated that the conference, the fifth held in British Columbia, was highly successful. Miss M. Holyoake has been appointed editor of the A.Y.P.A. bulletin, and requests all branches to contribute news items.

All branches were represented at the meeting and the president welcomed three members from the Sidney branch. Rev. A. Acheson-Lyle, the former chaplain, closed the meeting with prayer.

Due to the Christmas season the next meeting will be held one week earlier, on December 12.

Native Daughters—All members of Post No. 5, Native Daughters of B.C., are reminded of the joint social evening to be held to-morrow at 8 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias Hall, Broad Street. The Native Sons of B.C., Post No. 1, have been invited to attend this affair. The initiation service will be held first, followed by a social evening. It is hoped there will be a good attendance from both posts.

DEAN BOLLERT TRACES DRAMA

Dean of Women at U.B.C. Speaks on "Women in the Theatre"

Prof. M. L. Bollert, dean of women at the University of British Columbia, traced the history of women in the theatre from ancient times down to the present day, in the course of a university extension lecture in the auditorium of Girls' Central School last evening.

Contrary to their standing in other activities of life, Dean Bollert declared that women were but a very late arrival in the theatre. Only during the last four centuries had their status grown, the speaker declared.

In the ancient Greek drama there were no women because the drama of that time took on an extremely religious aspect, as did the drama of the 1,000 years following the birth of Christ.

Plays of that era were purely ceremonial rites in praise of some deity.

The speaker described the Greek theatre as being a very large bowl built in the side of a hill with a seating capacity according to the population of the city, with an eye to accommodating a large portion of it.

One of the most famous theatres in Athens, the great city of Greek culture, could seat 20,000 people.

AGAINST RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLES

There were no women in the Greek drama. It was so against religious principles of the age for women to take part in any play that their presence was discouraged even as an audience.

Their place in the theatre as characters was taken by men who disguised themselves as women.

In spite of these conditions, some of the greatest character creations of the time were women. The most persistent exponent of such characterizations, in fact the Greek author who practically revolutionized the status of women in the theatre, was Euripides. One of the most famous of his creations was Medea. Sophocles also used women as subjects for his plays.

In depicting Athenian drama all the actors were men, consequently great pains were taken to train the voice in attaining the perfect intonation.

Euripides in his persistency, lowered himself in the eyes of the judges as an author in creating his women characters contrary to the convention of the ancients, who placed women socially and politically in very low standing, as compared with the present day.

From its beginning among the ancient Greeks, Dean Bollert traced this history of women in the theatre through the age of the Roman Empire. There it did not particularly flourish. The Romans were of a more crude culture and found satisfaction in the realities of life only. For them were the gladiators and chariot races. The actualities of their existence were more interesting to them than the fictitious proceedings of the drama, and so this art progressed little during the rise and fall of the Roman Empire.

RELIGIOUS PLAYS

The speaker took up the thread in the history of women in the theatre later in the fifteenth century in a lucid description of the religious plays of the time. As was the primary purpose of the Greek drama, so the church plays in France at that time aimed to educate the vast masses of the poor. Epics of the Testaments were dramatized for the benefit of the ignorant to impress the events of importance in Christianity clearly upon them. This in itself was no definite advance in the liberty of women in regard to the theatre as women then were not allowed to speak in church nor to even raise their voices in prayer, the speaker declared. In England and Italy convention was more strict in its subjection of women.

In England, however, slight changes came about and as rivals to the pageants of the church were the jugglers and comedy actors who staged their shows on the streets. Perhaps the most important reason why women did not feature in the drama of the middle ages was the fact that there were very few women who could read.

Following this age the theatre was limited to the universities and did not make any great stride until the time of Shakespeare. In England there was no record of women on the professional stage before the year 1660, the speaker said.

In the Elizabethan theatre it was a popular custom for children to portray many of the lighter characterizations. In nearly all the illogical and romantic presentations children were featured. Young boys took the part of women and general brutality. They took great delight in battles, murders and general brutality. The speaker touched on the comic side of the drama of the time when she told how tears were produced by the use of an onion.

Dean Bollert declared that from the time of Shakespeare to the present the drama played a very small part. She touched on its progress in the reign of the Stuarts in its connection with women.

The professional actresses of the time were of the type of Nell Gwynne and they had a habit of wearing their stage costumes "out."

In the actress's age which followed the one bright spot was Mary Saunders.

The drama was revived in the late nineteenth century with the rise of Ellen Terry and Sarah Bernhardt. Sybil Thorndyke was the modern version of women in the theatre, the speaker stated.

In the latter's theory of the drama Dean Bollert said that Dame Sybil thought of the play as living only for the moment of its enactment, but newly created with each revival.

In closing, the speaker briefly sketched the part played by women in regard to the authorization of the drama beginning with the plays written by a Benedictine nun in the tenth century down to the work of Lillian Bayliss and Eva Le Gallienne.

Producer Kenneth Bishop Receives Encouraging Report From Hollywood

Highly satisfactory reports on the work done here so far by Central Films on their new production "Stop, Look and Love" were received by Kenneth Bishop, producer, yesterday from Hollywood, where the film is being processed.

The reports, said Mr. Bishop, were even more encouraging than he had expected, and the number of takes which have to be refilmed has been cut to the minimum.

Norman Holland of Montreal Comments on Business and Trade Agreement

Norman Holland, who consistently wears a carnation in his buttonhole, and who hands out cigars specially made to his order with the comment, "My Card," is in the city to-day from Montreal, radiating his customary business optimism.

Managing director of Brandram-Henderson Limited, paint manufacturer from Winnipeg in company with W. Turner, Mr. Holland came to the coast M. Neal, C.P.R. vice-president in charge of western lines.

"Business is better throughout the country," said Mr. Holland at the Empress Hotel this morning. "I have just returned from a trip to the West Indies and on my way west I have noted a distinctly better feeling in the business world."

He says the air route is the only way of transacting fast business. "We are on rising prices in Canada, and those who do not get in now will soon find they have passed up their opportunity," commented the paint manufacturer in discussing the market for raw materials.

He made the assertion that Canadian manufacturers, in some lines, were manufacturing and selling cheaper than it was possible in the United States.

He instanced zinc and white lead in oil, the price of which in Canada could not be approached by the United States manufacturers.

"It should do some good," Mr. Holland remarked when asked about the Canadian-United States trade agreement.

He considered the quotas ridiculous, but one, however, particularly as the agreement affected western Canada in the matter of lumber and cattle.

"The 250,000,000 board feet quota on lumber is infinitesimal when reckoned with the consumption in the United States," he observed. "And get this, 100,000 head of cattle represents but one meal in the United States," he said with reference to the 150,000 head of cattle quota under the new pact.

FOR THE PROVINCE Hon. Gordon Sloan, Attorney-General for British Columbia, replied to the toast to the Province. He referred to the good-fellowship created by the Legion, and said that in the stress and strain of these times it was something for which to be thankful.

A short outline of the Legion's history was given by Lieut.-General Sir Percy Lake. He referred to the late Earl Haig and said it was largely due to his self-sacrificing work that the Legion owed its being.

HELPED DISABLED The Legion was formed at Winnipeg, Sir Percy recalled, and he said it stood for loyalty, comradeship and the maintenance of peace in the world. He said it had helped thousands of comrades and assisted in the claims of disabled veterans. During the ten years of its history the Legion had helped fifty-three successful claims a day and had spent $10,000 of its own money in pressing these claims on the government of Canada. He spoke of the growth of the Legion and said at the first convention there were 20,000 members and 400 branches. Now there were between 150,000 and 160,000 members and over 1,400 branches, including Women's Auxiliaries.

LEGION'S GROWTH "We are growing, and growing fast," said Colonel Winsby, referring to Pro Patria. "Not only are we growing as a branch, but the Legion is also growing. As we fought shoulder to shoulder over there, so we are, fighting to-day—fighting and striving for the dependents of those who fell. That is our great objective. When we fall away from that we fail. But we are not going to fail. The Canadian Corps did not fail, and so we are not going to fail." Replying to the toast to the Canadian Navy, Commander O. C. Jones, R.C.N., commander-in-charge of the Esquimaux Naval Station, spoke of the late Admiral Jellicoe, who was laid to rest in St. Paul's Cathedral yesterday. He thanked the men of Pro Patria for their cordial reception to the Navy.

Brig.-General J. D. MacDonald, in charge of Work Point Barracks, said he brought greetings to the returned men from their serving comrades in the regular Army of Canada. "We appreciate very much what the Legion is doing for ex-soldiers," he said, "and we wish you every good fortune. For our part we feel that the honorable traditions of the Canadian Corps are being carried on to the best of our ability, and in that we seek your support and encouragement."

The orchestra, which was organized by William Holmes, under the direction of Bert Cartwright, was composed of W. Anderson, H. Highfield, R. Simpson, W. Easton, W. F. Holmes, J. Cartwright, B. Goodmurphy, F. Homan and W. Emerson. Acting on the committee in charge of the banquet, and to whom the credit for its success should go, were W. N. Winsby, chairman, C. A. Gill, F. Fox, T. W. L. Milton Cup Football Final Will Be Played On Saturday

THE SPORTS MIRROR

VICTORIA'S HOPE for the heavy-weight boxing title, Muzz Patrick, and this city's outstanding athletic coach, Archie McKinnon of the Y.M.C.A., come in for some nice publicity in the October-November issue of The British Columbia Sports Illustrated, a copy of which recently reached this office. Under the caption, "White Dynamite," the article written by McKinnon takes in two pages and carries pictures of both Muzz and Archie, the former in an impressive fighting pose.

The article in part follows: Four ring engagements, an entry in the Canadian championships, two more fights and he is now the Canadian amateur heavy-weight champion. For more successive victories to Washington State title. Sounds too good to be true, but it's all true, every word of it, that short history of the meteoric rise of Muzz Patrick.

"Impressive or not, the cool younger of the Patrick clan took them all in his winning stride and a side glance at the personality of this youngster is well worth while. "This is the way it all began. He is undoubtedly gifted and with the family background, could make good at almost any sport. In fact he has made good at almost all of them. Track, rugby, football, basketball, hockey, and baseball, but I fully believe his heart is set on giving the fight game a try. He is a two-fisted natural brawler, and does not mind taking a little punishment to dish out a little on his own. A short right hand to the heart or jaw has been his most dangerous weapon to date, but he is a fighting fool and should go a long way if properly handled."

Four of Victoria's leading amateur golfers are making strong efforts to put over plans for the staging of inter-city matches with an idea of providing better competition for the amateur club swingers of this city and Vancouver. The four men in question are Keny Lawson, Jimmy Todd, Bob Morrison and Harold Brynjolfsson. It has been recognized for a long time that lack of competition holds back the amateurs of this province.

Plans call for the inauguration of a series of inter-city matches. Each city through its golf executive, would select four players and the matches would be played in twosomes on the point-point system. It is hoped that they could be arranged at least once a month. Stan Leonard, well-known Vancouver amateur, was sounded out on the idea and declared: "I think it would be a splendid idea. The Victoria boys are absolutely right. We'll never get anywhere in national or international golf until we get more competition, and I guess the best place to start is among ourselves."

Miss Elizabeth Ryan, a veteran of the present-day tennis players, a few years past forty, and who won her first international title at Wimbledon in 1914, has turned professional. She is going to teach tennis to the young players on a "chain store" circuit embracing half-a-dozen fashionable villages on the outskirts of Los Angeles.

Miss Ryan has played tennis for exercise and fun for twenty-five years, but, as she explains, "Things haven't gone so well lately, so I decided to make a living out of the game." Miss Ryan won singles titles in the United States, England, France, Czechoslovakia, Ireland, Austria, Russia, Mexico, Wales and Italy, so she has certainly seen something of the world. Four times she was a singles finalist at Wimbledon, losing the last time to Helen Wills Moody in 1930.

HUDSON'S BAYS BEAT OLD BOYS

In a close-checking game, marked by the smart sharp-shooting of Baxter, Hudson's Bays defeated University Old Boys in a friendly basketball engagement at the Memorial Hall yesterday evening. The stormers took the fixture by the old point, 27 to 26. Ralph Shepherd refereed. Teams and individual scores follow: Old Boys—Wenman 4, Billingsley 2, Hamer 2, Skilling 6, Poyntz, LeMarquand 4, Miller 8. Hudson's Bays—Baxter 16, P. Frumetto, Williams, McConnell 5, Fish 3, T. Frumetto 2, Riddle 2, Macdonald 5, Wilkinson.

Victoria City Defend Honors Against Wests

Two Strong Elevens Will Battle at Athletic Park; Kick-off at 2.30

Second Division Matches Carded

Football fans will have the first cup final of the season offered them on Saturday afternoon when Victoria City and Victoria West clash at the Athletic Park at 2.30 o'clock to determine where the Milton Cup will rest for the next twelve months. J. C. Dowds will referee and overtime will be played if necessary.

The City will be defending the only mug they lifted last season, their first in senior company, and are a cinch to have their strongest club on the field. Last week the red-shirted eleven played to a 3 to 3 draw with Esquimalt, league leaders, after having a greater part of the play. The City reached the final as a result of a 2 to 1 decision over the Thistles in the semi-finals.

WILL MISS BARNES Jubilant over their great 4 to 1 victory over the Spanish Thistles last Saturday in a league encounter the Wests will take the field brim full of confidence. But their line-up will be sorely weakened through the loss of Roy Barnes, their crack centre-half, who has left the city. Just what Manager Dr. Poyntz will use to replace Barnes is not known, but he will have to juggle his team around considerably. Before Barnes' departure the Wests had just won the first half-back line in the city with Barnes working with Harry Storey and Ernie Lorrain. The Wests hold second place in the league standing by a two point margin over the City.

Two second division league fixtures will also be played on Saturday afternoon. At Bullen Park, Esquimalt will act as hosts to Victoria West with Dave Swan as referee. Spanish Thistles and Victoria City will tangle at Heywood Avenue with T. Robb in charge. These games will start at 2.30 o'clock.

SWIM MEET PROGRAMME

Events Drawn Up For Vancouver Island Swimming League Event Dec. 12

The programme for the next monthly swimming meet of the Vancouver Island Swimming League, to be held in the Crystal Garden Thursday evening, December 12 at 8 o'clock, was drawn up at a meeting held yesterday evening.

Tentative plans were also drawn up for the programmes of the following two meets, which will include longer distances and events for junior girls under fourteen.

These meets are fast rounding the swimmers of Victoria's three clubs, Y.M.C.A., Pacific and V.A.S.C. into fine shape in preparation for the international classic which is to be staged here early in 1936. The programme follows: 150 yards medley relay for women. 150 yards medley relay for men. 50 yards junior girls under seventeen. 50 yards junior boys under seventeen. 50 yards women. 50 yards men. Pacific Club handicap. 150 yards medley relay junior girls. 150 yards medley relay junior boys. 200 yards men. V.A.S.C. Club handicap. Y.M.C.A. Club handicap. 200 yards relay women. 200 yards relay men.

Roy Barnes Goes To Ocean Falls

Victoria lost one of its finest athletes yesterday with the departure for Ocean Falls of Roy Barnes, crack centre-half of the Victoria United, Intercity Soccer League entry, and the Victoria West in the local first division. Barnes also played some smart baseball as catcher for the Sons of Canada senior club the last few seasons.

Barnes received a telegram yesterday offering him a job, and left on the afternoon boat for the mainland. Before departing he wished to be remembered to his many friends. Barnes will remain at Ocean Falls indefinitely.

FOUR TEAMS IN DEADLOCK

Keen Competition Features Six-day Bike Race on St. Louis Track

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—The team of Frank Turano and Tommy Flynn, was shoved down to fifth place as four duos swirled to the front yesterday evening in St. Louis's six-day bicycle race.

On the basis of mileage and laps the leaders at the end of 122 hours of the race were the teams of Winter-Carpus, Sheehan-Nauwens, Keating-Triebe and Schaller-Fielding. Turano and Flynn had led previously.

The standings follow: M. L. Pts. Winter-Carpus 1907 6 641 Sheehan-Nauwens 1907 6 447 Keating-Triebe 1907 6 435 Schaller-Fielding 1907 6 308 Turano-Flynn 1907 5 342 Gruber-Ammann 1907 4 278 Walthour-Tye 1907 0 278 Keeler-Camastro 1906 5 209

In the home team's second innings Harvey was top scorer with 104 and Siedie made 69.

JEWISH GIRL ON NAZI TEAM

Helene Mayer Accepted As Member of German Fencing Squad For Olympics

Berlin, Nov. 26.—German Olympic authorities yesterday announced receipt of Helene Mayer's acceptance of an invitation to compete for Germany in the 1936 Olympics at Berlin and, at the same time, assured the famous fencer she would be considered a full German citizen despite her Jewish blood.

Miss Mayer's acceptance was sent before the latest Jewish laws were published, but in the interim Olympic officials obviously were worried about how they were to give Miss Mayer a place on the German team and, simultaneously, avoid setting a precedent for other Jewish questions. This problem, however, was settled by the decree of November 15, whereby Jews, and therefore non-citizens, were adjudged to be those persons of 75 per cent or more Jewish blood. Miss Mayer does not come within this category, according to information here.

gested the western representative name the winner of the Texas Christian-Southern Methodist tussle at Fort Worth Saturday.

There were reports Stanford would make another attempt to get Princeton. This was in the face of insistent undergraduate comment the Tigers were not interested in the tournament of roses games, which they termed a "commercial classic."

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

Strange as it seems, England has had three kings called Richard, each of them died a death of violence—none of them left an heir to rule after him. Richard I had his rule cut short in 1199 by a poisoned arrow which struck him as he and his army stormed Chalus castle in France for the treasure of gold that was there. He left no heir to take the throne and was succeeded by John, son of John II.

Almost two centuries later Richard II was mysteriously murdered while in prison where he was confined by the parliament which had deposed him. Who his murderers were or the manner of his death are still unsolved mysteries. He was succeeded by Henry IV, son of John of Gaunt.

Richard III, called the Lion-hearted third and last King Richard of England, was killed in battle while leading his army against that of Henry VII. The Henry became king as Henry VII. The death of Richard III brought to an end the reign of the Plantagenets.

MAROONS TO MEET HAWKS

World Hockey Champions Favored to Break Streak of Chicago To-night

The crushing Chicago Black Hawks, only unbeaten team of the National Hockey League Season, will carry their newly-found wallop into Montreal to-night and try it on the champions of the world, Tommy Gorman's Maroons. The occasion is fraught with significance.

The Hawks, with four victories and one tie on the record, have proved the potency of their attack only to Chicago spectators. In their only away-game they were held to a scoreless tie by Detroit Red Wings. To-night, Clem Loughlin's men will see how Maroons behave at home.

Instead of the highly-effective "forechecking" system Gorman himself taught them two years ago, the Hawks have started to spread their wings this fall.

They have produced the early season's point-scoring leaders in Paul Thompson, Don McPadden and Doc Romnes. But Hawks are on the road now and Maroons, having won two and lost two, are favored to win to-night. The Hawks take on Rangers in New York Thursday night.

Toronto Maple Leafs, fighting to break a three-game losing streak, play the Bruins in Boston to-night. The Bruins have played three games and scored one goal. Two have been scored against them. This is a strange state of affairs for the machine piloted by Eddie Shore, and the Leafs plan on breaking it wide open.

In New York, the Rangers and Americans hook up in their first duel of the season.

UPLANDS GOLF F. L. Leslie won the monthly medal competition at the Uplands Golf Club on Sunday when he finished 2 down.

Hunting Notes

The best area for deer hunting so far this season appears to be in the Sooke district. Reports show that many bucks are being shot in this district each week-end.

A ten-point buck was shot and killed Sunday by Mr. Mims, Kananis Road, Metcalm, on his own property. He plans to have the fine spread mounted.

Fred Saunders, local hunter, secured a fairly good-sized fork in the Sooke River district.

Hunters reported to the game department Sunday evening that a large fork buck had been dragged down by a cougar in the vicinity of Bone Yard Lake, Mills Landing. Half of the hindquarters was eaten away.

An expedition of duck hunters organized by E. B. Wilson bagged close to 150 ducks Sunday when hunting among the Gulf Islands. They managed to get in two hours' hunting in the morning before a heavy fog set in. The fog lifted about 1 o'clock and shooting continued until 4.30 o'clock. Plenty of ammunition was used. The party consisted of Doug Morrison, P. Morse, Charles Fraser, Walter Laven, J. and R. McConnan, Jack Bryden, Bill Orchard, S. Williams, Ted McPeely, E. B. Wilson, Peter Bradford and Jack Holton.

Louie Coupeuz Out Of Game For Month

Portland, Nov. 26.—Louie Coupeuz, right wing for the Portland Buckaroos, will be out of competition in the Northwest Hockey League for the next month, the club physician said yesterday evening.

Dr. Otto George announced Coupeuz had incurred a broken bone just below the left shoulder joint in the 1 to 1 game with Edmonton Sunday night. The injury was not discovered until last yesterday.

Coupeuz played throughout the game.

BATTAGLIA TO FIGHT CHAMP

Winnipeg Meets Babe Riske in Non-title Bout on December 9

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—The fight Frankie Battaglia, Winnipeg, earned with champion Babe Riske by whipping Paul Pirone a fortnight ago will not be for the middleweight title after all, it developed yesterday.

Instead, when the Canadian middleweight meets world champion Riske here December 9, it will be a non-title affair, promoters Taylor and Gunnis announced. The clash will be over the ten-pound route.

No comment was forthcoming immediately from any of the principals on the reasons for not staking the world crown on the outcome of the clash.

Although the title will not be up when Battaglia faces Riske next month, a win for the Winnipeg wallop would be important. It worked out that way for Riske, at any rate.

RED STACKS TO OPPOSE DUNCAN

Island Tug-Red Stacks, smooth-working intermediate A quintette, which defeated West Saanich Mercantiles, leaders in the local Senior B race, Saturday evening in the final of the Victoria section of the Winter Cup knockout series, will stack up against the Duncan Union 78 five Friday evening in the semi-final encounter. This fixture will be the feature attraction on the evening's three game programme to be staged in the Duncan Agricultural Hall.

Walter Teasdale's Unitys are carded to oppose the Duncan Elks, women's squad, in a Wenger Cup knockout semi-final.

The opener at 7.30 o'clock will bring together the Duncan Teachers quintette and Duncan Rotary Club.

Vancouver Lions Smother Calgary

Seibert Signs With Rangers

New York, Nov. 26.—Earl Seibert, rugged New York Ranger defence star, came to terms with Manager Lester Patrick to-day and signed his 1935-36 contract, thereby ending one of the longest hold-out records in National Hockey League history.

Terms reached were not announced but Seibert had refused to sign a contract offering him $6,000, which was reported to be a substantial cut over the salary he received last season when he was chosen for the right defence position of the Canadian Press all-star team.

Register 9 to 2 Victory in Northwest Hockey League Engagement; Palm and Dyck High Scorers; Lions Tied With Portland For Lead

Vancouver, Nov. 26.—A weary band of hockey warriors from Calgary, making their first appearance on Vancouver ice this season, absorbed a 9 to 2 shellacking from Guy Patrick's Lions at the Arena yesterday evening.

The outcome enabled the Lions to draw up on even terms with Portland Buckaroos at the top of the Northwest League.

Brian Hestall started Vancouver on its scoring spurge with the prettiest goal scored here this season. Picking the rubber up at his own goal he drew the Calgary blue line stickhandling his course in the style of a penman's "S" through three defenders, pulled Timmins out and slipped the disc by him.

Palm and Dyck collected the high scorin honors, amassing three points each. This combination scored Vancouver's second and third markers, respectively. Clint Smith broke away at his own blue line, took the puck through the Tiger defence and aid a pass to Walt Greasy, who was coming in from left boards, to take it in his stride and mark up the Lions' fourth score. Captain Tip O'Neil grabbed a loose puck at centre, tricked the defence, and slid the puck under the Calgary goalies' legs when he attempted to come out to save.

Starting the third period, Frank Sheppard let go with a drive, hitting Timmins on the chest. The Tiger netminder let it bounce off his chest to Dutch Gainer in front of the net, but before Dutch could get it under control it bounced off his leg into the net.

CALGARY SCORES Carl Sorenson caught the Vancouver team up the ice and shot a quick pass to Ernie Anderson, who gave Calgary their first score, but in the next ten minutes the Lions added three more to the Tigers one in reply.

Hestall counted his second goal when Smith and O'Neil combined to give him a pass in front of the net. Vancouver changed lines and Sheppard carried the puck over the Calgary blue line to shoot a short pass ahead to Dyck, who had no difficulty finding the net. Palm duplicated Sheppard's pass to Dyck, and the Lions' speedster rang up his third goal of the game.

Ernie Anderson wound up the scoring for himself and both teams when he banged in Chris Sorenson's pass four minutes from the final bell.

Teams follow: Calgary—Timmins; Gilmour, McFarlane; Smith; Chris Sorenson; Anderson. Sub: Gainer, Adams, Carl Sorenson, McGregor.

Vancouver—Clark; Hutton; Creasy; Smith; O'Neil, Hestall. Subs: Palm, Dyck, Priddham, F. Sheppard. Referee—Amby Moran.

SUMMARY First period—1, Vancouver, Hestall 12:00; 2, Vancouver, Dyck 16:11. Penalties: None.

Second period—3, Vancouver, Palm 3:50; 4, Vancouver, Creasy (Smith) 4:55; 5, Vancouver, O'Neil 16:33. Penalties: None.

Third period—6, Vancouver, Sheppard 4:05; 7, Calgary, Anderson (Carl Sorenson) 5:38; 8, Vancouver, Hestall (Smith-O'Neil) 9:11; 9, Vancouver, Dyck (Sheppard) 12:31; 10, Vancouver, Dyck (Palm) 12:34; 11, Calgary, Anderson (Chris Sorenson) 16:30. Penalties: Priddham (2), McFarlane (2), R. Smith.

The other morning engagement will bring together Esquimalt Meat Market and Hill's Corner at Bullen Park at the same time. Borde will referee.

Paul Thompson Sets Scoring Pace In National Hockey League

Chicago Forward Has Nine Points In Five Battles

Scores Five Goals and Gives Four Assists; Doc Romnes Only One Point Back

Chuck Conacher
Canadian Leader

Montreal, Nov. 26.—Chicago Black Hawks' new forward line of Doc Romnes, Paul Thompson and Donnie McFadyen showed scoring punch in their team's undefeated streak of five games and dominated the first weekly statistics of the National Hockey League, issued here yesterday evening by President Frank Calder.

Only big Charlie Conacher, Toronto Maple Leafs' right wing star, the league's leading scorer for the last two years, was able to keep pace with the Chicago trio. Thompson has five goals, nine points; Romnes two goals, eight points; McFadyen two goals, seven points, an aggregate of nine goals, fifteen assists, twenty-four points in five games of which Chicago won four, tied one.

Conacher, "Sweeney" Schriner, New York Americans, and Nick Metz, young Leaf, each has scored six goals for the leadership in that department, but two assists gave Conacher eight points to lead the Canadian section. Schriner, Metz and Harvey Jackson, Leafs' left winger, each has six points.

JOLIAT WELL UP

Canadians placed three players next in the Canadian division, veteran Aurel Joliat, young Jack McGill and Paul Haynes, each with five points. The champion Montreal Maroons, in four games, could show nothing better than Baldy Northcott's four points.

Best individual feat in the young season was Schriner's four goals against Maple Leafs. Red Herber of the Leafs' rearguard quickly jumped back into his place of last year as most penalized player with twenty-two minutes. Hec Kilrea, Detroit, and Vernon Ayres, Rangers, each had fourteen.

RED DUTTON GETS SOME ROUGH TREATMENT

Hockey fans in the cities served by teams of the National Hockey League are witnessing some great action in early season games. Above is shown a sample of the thudding scrimmage that drew cheers as Montreal Canadiens defeated New York Americans at Madison Square Garden. Dutton (left), playing manager of the Americans, is going down as Haynes (centre) of the Canadiens and Lesieur, Dutton's teammate, continue the struggle for possession of the puck.

History Repeats In Villa's Case

Followers of Aston Villa in English Football League Trace Present Troubles to Securing of Jimmy Allen, Famous Centre-half; Club Had Same Problem in Season of 1919-20

London, Nov. 26.—History is repeating itself in the case of Aston Villa, six times league champions and six times winners of the Football Association Cup, who are facing the prospect of relegation to the second division for the first time in the history of the famous club.

Villa supporters are pointing to a 1919-20 parallel of the club's present difficulties. In that season the first ten games played yielded only three points, and the club was at the bottom of the league.

Then the directors secured Frank Barson, the English international centre-half from Barnsley, and an improvement in the club's fortunes began at once. So great a recovery did the team make under the guidance and generalship of Barson that in that season the Villa won the cup by defeating Huddersfield in the final at Stamford Bridge.

And now the Villa are faced with the prospect of the old fight all over again. After losing at home to Middlesbrough and West Bromwich, who both ran up half a dozen goals, the 6-2 defeat at home to Grimsby Town was the last straw for the supporters of the wearers of the old claret and blue.

This defeat firmly established the Villa at the bottom of the table, only the second time they have been wooden-spoonists. One does not have to look far for one cause of the trouble, for while the Villa have scored plenty of goals, they have conceded far too many.

The eclipse of this famous club is almost a tragedy. It is their proud boast that they have never suffered the indignity of relegation, but they are certainly heading that way, and quickly, too.

WHAT IS WRONG?
What is wrong with the once great team? Rightly or wrongly, the followers of the club trace their troubles to the acquisition of Jimmy Allen, the Portsmouth and England centre-half, at a record fee of £10,750.

Allen is essentially a defensive player, and the Villa have tried to build their team around him, a scheme so foreign to their traditions that it is hardly surprising it has failed.

What the Villa want at the moment is another player of the quality of Barson, who, incidentally, was recently appointed coach and supervisor of training by the Villa directors, or a "dictator"—someone like the late Herbert Chapman.

The club's shareholders, a numerous and powerful body, are agitating for the holding of a general meeting in order, if possible, to demand the reorganization or at any rate the strengthening of the board of directors.

Thirty signatures were necessary before such a meeting could be convened. These have been obtained and the requisition will be presented to the directors without delay.

In June last an extraordinary meeting of the shareholders was called, the principals being to press for the return to the directorate of F. W. Hinder, the late chairman, but there were a good many cross currents at the meeting, and eventually it resolved in a vote of confidence being passed in the directors of the club.

Many of the shareholders, however, now hold that something drastic must be done to reorganize both the board and the team.

THEY HAVE THE PLAYERS

The Villa's position is difficult to understand when one considers the players they have at their disposal. In any case the reserve team is second in the Central League, and the "A" team is top of the Birmingham combination, so there seems to be plenty of talent in the dressing-room.

The Villa need not be despondent about their position. One remembers the similar plight of Chelsea two seasons ago. By Christmas time they had obtained only eight points, but the acquisition of Gregg from Birmingham brought about a vast improvement, so much so that the London team escaped relegation, the fate which everybody had predicted for them.

It is understood that the Villa intend to continue with their present managerial arrangements without making another appointment. Special attention is now being paid to the training in the hope of improving the lasting powers of the men, and an improvement was noticeable against Grimsby, against whom they stuck it well in the face of most discouraging circumstances.

Aston Villa, one of the founders of the original football league, who entered professional football in 1887, are one of the two clubs who have never played in any but the first division. The other is Blackburn Rovers.

THE ANGLO-GERMAN MATCH
Dr. Bauwens, one of the leaders of German football and one of the best referees on the continent, and Herr Otto Kern, the coach, spent some time in London making arrangements in connection with the soccer match between England and Germany, at Tottenham on December 4.

It may be taken for granted that in spite of all the protests the match will take place as originally arranged. The Spurs have received a hint from headquarters to carry on with the arrangements.

The difficulty is to satisfy the German demand for tickets. About 6,000 of these have already been sold and the demand is so great that those who wish to see the game, and have not applied, may be disappointed concerning reserved seats.

At the headquarters of the game they are quite content that even in regard to this match the sport will remain free from politics.

SOME TRAVELING
A soccer mathematician, probably in an effort to try to forget that the failure of one team robbed him of winning a pool, has been amusing himself with a league fixture list and an atlas.

His labors revealed that in the aggregate the teams in the first division travel approximately 297,000 miles to fulfil their engagements during the course of a season.

He explains that the total are compiled on the basis of return journeys, and his table, with teams and mileage, is:

Stoke City	3,524
Manchester City	3,580
Sheffield W.	3,704
Derby County	3,794
Bolton W.	3,840
Huddersfield	3,912
Wolves	3,972
West Brom. A.	4,030
Blackburn	4,048
Aston Villa	4,056
Birmingham	4,068
Liverpool	4,084
Everton	4,084
Preston N.E.	4,292
Leeds	4,456
Middlesbrough	4,452
Cardiff	4,620
Arsenal	4,680
Chelsea	4,890
Brentford	4,984
Sunderland	7,404
Portsmouth	8,728

The longest journey is from Portsmouth to Sunderland—about 394 miles—and the shortest (excluding matches between teams in the same town), Birmingham to West Bromwich, about five miles.

PORT ARTHUR TEAM GOING

No Appeal Against Decision to Send Western Hockeyists to Olympic Games

Toronto, Nov. 26.—Addressing an informal dinner given by the central Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada yesterday evening, President E. A. Gilroy of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association said no appeal against the decision to send Port Arthur Bearcats to the Olympic Games would be considered.

"If we were to consider the Montreal Royals," Gilroy said, "we must also consider the North Battleford team. They were semi-finalists in the Allan Cup competition, the same as Montreal Royals."

The Port Arthur team occupied the same position in the west as Halifax Wolverines held in the east. Therefore the Bearcats are the logical choice since the Halifax club found it impossible to keep the Wolverines intact and make the trip. This was decided at the meeting in Halifax, and it was the opinion of the majority of the members of the committee who considered the question.

IS DEFINITE
"This is definite and the only thing left to be considered is the players who will be picked to strengthen the Bearcats. This has been left to a committee to decide and an announcement concerning it may be made in the near future."

"Twelve players will be taken on the trip, and it may be necessary to add only two or three to the Port Arthur team to bring it up to the required strength."

Montreal, Nov. 26.—Announcement in Toronto by E. A. Gilroy, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, that selected of Port Arthur Bear Cats as Canada's Olympic hockey representatives was final met further protest from Quebec hockey officials yesterday. The Quebec Amateur Hockey Association was asked to be considering a further official protest.

Leo Burns, president of the Quebec branch Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, joined Frank C. Greenleaf, immediate past-president of the C.H.A., in supporting the idea that Montreal Royals should be given a play-off with the western squad, the winner to go to the Olympics.

"Port Arthur is a good team," Mr. Burns said, "but they should be made to prove their worth."

First Half Senior Rugby Champions Will Face Stiff Test Saturday; Bays-Wanderers and Navy Meet; Test Match Is Set Back

Champions of the first half of the local senior rugby league, Fifth Brigade ruggers will take the field against the Garrison at Macdonald Park under grounds, while the Bays-Wanderers clash with the Navy in the other game at the enclosure, as first division squads swing away on the final round of this season's Barnard Cup play on Saturday.

In the senior B division the Navy will attempt to score a deciding victory in the special series against the Garrison. At present the sailors are leading the Tommies two games to one as the result of last Saturday's play. A verdict this Saturday will give them the laurels. The game will be played at the Naval Recreation Grounds at Admirals Road.

INTERMEDIATES
Wanderers Whites, joint leaders of the intermediate league with the Fifth Brigade, will stack up against Victoria College at Victoria High School grounds, while Wanderers Blues will tackle the Canadian Scottish at Oak Bay Park in the minor league fixtures.

All games are scheduled to start at 2:45 o'clock with the exception of the senior B engagement, which is listed for 1:30.

In making arrangements for the immediate start of the second half schedule, the union decided to back date the proposed test game between rep team candidates to December 7. The fixture will probably be staged as a charity match.

Notice was served at the meeting yesterday evening the weight ruling governing intermediate players would be more strictly enforced. Performers in that league must be under 160 pounds.

Permission was granted the Canadian Scottish to play a friendly game against Cowichan.

Harold Winch, M.P., will speak at the Parish Hall, Esquimalt, Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the C.C.P. Club.

The Central Saanich Young Liberal Club held a meeting on Thursday evening. Plans were made for a dance to be held on December 4. All members of the club are requested to be present.

The city police commission, in a letter to the City Council to-day, recommended the acceptance of a tender from Robert Rankin for nine police overcoats and three pea jackets at a cost of $349.30.

W. M. Neal, vice-president in charge of western lines, Canadian Pacific Railway, Winnipeg, and party, left by motor this morning for a trip over the Island Highway, to Nanaimo. The party will return to Victoria by the evening E. and N. train.

Adjournment until Monday next of the case in which William Barnes of Work Point Barracks is charged with ill-treating a dog was given in Esquimalt Police Court yesterday on application of W. T. Straith, acting defence counsel.

At the meeting of the Community Forum in the Victoria West United Church to-morrow evening, Rev. W. J. Sippel, D.D., will speak on "Developing the International Mind." The address will be followed by a social hour and the serving of refreshments.

Burnside lawn bowlers will hold a birthday party on Thursday evening, to which all members and friends are invited. There will be a short session of court whist, then old-time dancing from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock. The card game will start at 8 and friends for the dance will be in time on the coach leaving the city at 9:15 o'clock.

The annual meeting of Ward Six Liberal Association will be held at the Liberal Headquarters, corner of Government and Broughton streets, on Wednesday evening next at 8 o'clock. Ward Four will meet at the same place on Friday evening. This will round out the annual elections of officers in all the wards and the central association will then lay their plans for the forthcoming year.

The choir of Centennial Church will present John Ebenezer West's Christmas cantata, "The Story of Bethlehem," on Sunday, December 22, at a twilight service in the church. The words, written by Shapcott Wensley, give, in songs, duets, quartets and choruses, a descriptive story of the birth of Christ. The choir will be under the direction of J. W. Buckler, with Miss Kathleen Irvine accompanying on the piano and Mrs. Paul Green at the organ console.

Reports of the meeting in Seattle recently of the Evergreen Playground Association were presented at a meeting of directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau yesterday.

A report on tourist cars visiting the island was also presented, showing there were 60 per cent more cars from California than from Washington. As the result of the exploitation of Highway No. 10 through McManis there was an increase of nearly 200 per cent in the cars from that state. Cars came from nine foreign countries besides the United States, including one from Africa. The board decided that to carry on advertising during the winter months it would be necessary to appeal to business men of the city who derive direct benefit from the tourist business and several directors promised to solicit subscriptions.

A committee of three, A. D. King, M. Armstrong and Capt. T. J. Goodlake, was appointed by the president to consider the possibility of reorganizing a provincial automobile club. It is now three years since the Automobile Club of British Columbia ceased to function. The need is often felt for a body that speak for the motorists of the province on a whole.

Magistrate George Jay to-day again stressed the menace of reckless driving before imposing a fine of $25 against Charles A. Brown, farm hand, for driving to the common danger on Johnson Street last Wednesday.

"A car in the hands of a reckless person is more dangerous than a loaded gun," the magistrate declared before imposing sentence. "There are more killed in car accidents than by gunfire."

The magistrate informed the owner of the car, which had been borrowed by Brown on the evening the offence was committed, that he, the owner, could be held responsible for the fine or for any damage which might have resulted from the alleged careless driving.

The committee endorsed Chief Heatley in regard to the necessity of cyclists having lights fixed on their bicycles.

C. H. French proposed that the City Council be approached on the question of the improvement of Pandora Avenue and make it an arterial highway, to relieve traffic through the Dardenelles. The Dardenelles, at the present time, is in bad condition, it was pointed out, there being four deep cuts across the road where the street car tracks run.

The intersection of Fernwood and Pandora was declared dangerous, due to the lack of view on the northeast corner. The committee expressed their appreciation of the fine co-operation extended by them by the Canadian Pacific Railway, who have allotted the northeast corner of the wharf for private cars meeting incoming steamers, on the request of the committee. Robert Kernshaw presided.

J. Smith Elected Ward One Head

Chosen President of Liberal Association at Annual Meeting

With more than 100 members attending, Ward One Victoria Liberal Association held its annual meeting in Liberal headquarters yesterday evening and elected Joshua Smith president for the coming year.

Mr. Smith succeeds Major S. Henson, who, in a brief speech, thanked the members for their support.

G. A. Renton was chosen vice-president, with E. Merriman as secretary and J. G. Mackenzie as treasurer.

The following were selected as delegates to the central executive: G. A. Renton, the L. E. Tupper, Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. H. Shandley.

The honorary officers are: President, W. Minty; vice-president, Henry Wilson.

H. M. McGiverin, newly-elected president of the Victoria Liberal Association, spoke to the meeting on organization matters, emphasizing action by all associations to forward the Liberal cause.

Alderman T. W. C. Hawkins, the new vice-president of the central association; W. H. Kinman, the retiring president; and G. J. McDowell, who ran as the Liberal candidate in the federal election, were other speakers.

URGE FEDERAL ROAD CONTROL

Need of Improvement on Trunk Highways Stressed at Meeting of Auto Club

Captain T. J. Goodlake, secretary, was authorized at a meeting of the directors of the Victoria Automobile Club held yesterday afternoon, after they had declared themselves in favour of the Dominion Government taking over the upkeep and construction of main trunk highways in the four western provinces, to communicate with provincial government officials urging them to introduce the matter at the upcoming meeting of Canadian premiers.

It was felt that the main highways should at an early date, be improved to a standard that would be attractive to tourists, particularly those from the United States, who are used to modern highways. The directors agreed, however, that it was practically an impossibility for the four western provinces to finance from their own resources a programme of road improvements such as is called for, considering the long distances and sparse settlement.

It was pointed out that the Dominion Government had taken over the construction and maintenance of trunk highways in the United States, where conditions are in many ways similar to those of Canada.

The directors also decided to request the Dominion Government to consider the question of having the motor and driving licenses of one province recognized in another without formalities at interprovincial boundaries. It is felt that such a policy would encourage more interprovincial travel among the citizens of Canada.

The popularity of the Victoria Automobile Club's work, which is just beginning to be recognized, has resulted in a membership increase of eleven during the month, directors of the organization, were told.

A committee of three, A. D. King, M. Armstrong and Capt. T. J. Goodlake, was appointed by the president to consider the possibility of reorganizing a provincial automobile club. It is now three years since the Automobile Club of British Columbia ceased to function. The need is often felt for a body that speak for the motorists of the province on a whole.

SUGGEST LOTS FOR PARKING

Proposal Made That City Use Lots to Avert Congestion

A suggestion that the city be approached on the question of converting vacant lots in the city into parking space for cars, and thus do away with the heavy parking in the business section of Victoria, was made this afternoon by Captain T. J. Goodlake at a luncheon meeting of the safety committee of the Victoria Automobile Club, held in Speedie's Cafe.

At the last meeting the committee decided to communicate with Chief Heatley on the subject of doing away with double and triple parking. The chief, in reply, stated that parallel parking might ease the present situation somewhat, with a half-hour time limit.

BICYCLE LIGHTS
The committee endorsed Chief Heatley in regard to the necessity of cyclists having lights fixed on their bicycles.

C. H. French proposed that the City Council be approached on the question of the improvement of Pandora Avenue and make it an arterial highway, to relieve traffic through the Dardenelles. The Dardenelles, at the present time, is in bad condition, it was pointed out, there being four deep cuts across the road where the street car tracks run.

The intersection of Fernwood and Pandora was declared dangerous, due to the lack of view on the northeast corner. The committee expressed their appreciation of the fine co-operation extended by them by the Canadian Pacific Railway, who have allotted the northeast corner of the wharf for private cars meeting incoming steamers, on the request of the committee. Robert Kernshaw presided.

Obituary

THOMAS BOURNE

Funeral services, with full military honors, will be conducted to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Bands Funeral Chapel over the remains of Thomas Bourne, who passed away Sunday at the Jubilee Hospital, aged fifty-nine years. Rev. E. F. Church will officiate and interment will be in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Mr. Bourne was born in King's Lynn, Norfolk, England, and came to Victoria twenty-eight years ago. He saw service in the South African campaign with the 16th Queen's Lancashire, and also served overseas during the Great War with the 16th Battalion, C.E.F. He is survived by his widow; one daughter, Miss Edna Bourne, and three sons, Frederick, Douglas and Lynford, all at the family residence, 119 Rendall Street; one brother in Vancouver, a stepbrother in England, one sister here, one sister at Colwood and one in Vancouver.

ELLEN JANE MANN

Many sympathizing friends were present at funeral services held yesterday afternoon for the late Mrs. Ellen Jane Mann. The many beautiful flowers received testified to the esteem in which Mrs. Mann was held. Rev. William Allan conducted an impressive service, during which two hymns, "Abide With Me" and "Rock of Ages," were sung. Interment was in the family plot at Royal Oak Burial Park, and the following acted as pallbearers: A. S. Campion, W. D. Taylor, H. Holmes, E. Jones, F. E. Toth and A. A. Brown.

F. H. STEEDE

The funeral of the late F. H. Steede, ex-mayor of Port Alberni and resident of the west coast city for twenty-five years, took place last Friday at Vancouver, where the remains were shipped after a service held in St. Alban's Anglican Church. Mr. Steede was in his seventy-second year and had been active in the community work of the Port Alberni district, having served for ten years as alderman. He is survived by his widow and one son, John, who is a member of the B.C. Electric Company staff in Vancouver. Interment took place in North Vancouver Cemetery.

ARTHUR E. HAYNES

In the presence of a large and representative congregation, funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Church of Our Lord for Arthur E. Haynes, who passed away last Friday. Rev. A. DeB. Owen officiated, assisted by Canon A. E. de L. Nunn of St. Mary's, Oak Bay. The hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me," were sung by the congregation.

The pallbearers were: F. G. Mulholland, Henry G. Dalby, E. J. Johnson, H. H. Hewitt, H. Shandley, H. G. S. Heisterman and B. S. Heisterman. The flowers were unusually beautiful and so numerous that they required a special car for their conveyance to Colwood Burial Park, where interment was made in the presence of many sorrowing friends.

ELIZA A. FREEMAN

Mr. Eliza Ann Freeman, resident of Nanaimo for the last forty-two years, passed away Monday evening, aged eighty years. She is survived by two sons, James A. Freeman of Garrett, B.C., and H. N. Freeman, president of the Vancouver Island Bureau of Mines and mining engineer of Vancouver; two daughters, Miss Mary Freeman of Nanaimo, and Mrs. Emma Freeman of Vancouver; also one sister, a London, England, and six grandchildren.

GEORGINA W. NEWTON

Rev. T. R. Lancaster conducted the funeral services for the remains of Miss Georgina W. Newton, who passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital Saturday in her sixty-eighth year. The remains were later forwarded to Vancouver for cremation. The late Miss Newton was born in Victoria, the youngest daughter of the late W. H. Newton and Mrs. E. Mohun of Bromley, Kent.

JAMES PATERSON

Funeral services for James Paterson, who passed away Sunday at the family residence, 1905 Belcher Avenue, aged seventy-nine years, will be conducted to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at Bands Mortuary Chapel. Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell will officiate and interment will be in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Eighty Days Of Yawning

Mrs. Wakelin's Condition Remains the Same; Many Charms Sent Her; Specialist Expected

On a hospital bed, under strict medical supervision, Mrs. P. E. Wakelin entered her eightieth day of continual yawning to-day.

Her condition remains very much the same, with the sufferer yawning on the average of about five times a minute. She appears to be getting a little more rest. Occasionally she is able to sleep without drugs.

Beside letters of which Mrs. Wakelin gets an average of between thirty and forty a day, she has received numerous charms and pamphlets from religious people in various parts of Canada and United States.

Among these was a beautiful illustrated Bible with a cover made of olive wood from Palestine which is considered quite rare.

Mrs. Wakelin has undergone a number of X-ray examinations, but Dr. H. H. Murphy of the X-ray staff at the Jubilee Hospital, refused to disclose any of the results. Particular attention is being paid to the sufferer's stomach as she has not been able to hold any food for some time, but, aside from this, there has been no special treatment.

A specialist from Vancouver is coming to see Mrs. Wakelin at the end of the week.

On Monday evening the meeting of the St. Aidan's Tillikum Club took the form of a social. Next Monday the public is invited to attend an illustrated lecture on the "History of the Bible," to be given by Mr. Harkness of the John Howard Bible Society.

Engineers Hear Of Great Work

I. C. Bartrop Elected Chairman of Victoria Branch of Institute

The engineering ingenuity displayed in the great Grand Coulee dam construction in eastern Washington was elaborated upon yesterday evening at the Y.W.C.A. before forty members of the Victoria branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada by C. E. Webb, president of the Dominion Hydrometric Bureau. He illustrated his lecture with seventy-five slides of pictures taken by himself during a recent visit to the scene of the work.

Three thousand men are now employed on the work under a large corps of engineers, he said, describing it as a gigantic undertaking, wonderful in the efficiency and skill with which it is being carried out. Mr. Webb outlined the Columbia Basin project of the United States Government from its beginning. Storage of the water of the Columbia River for irrigating the vast dry belt of central Washington is provided for in the present job, he explained. Later the great hydro-electric power project would be added to furnish low cost power in unlimited quantities to the whole state.

The work on the dam, he said, had now reached the stage where the pouring of concrete was starting. Everything in connection with the work, he said, was done electrically. He showed the latest method of removing earth by the belt conveyor system.

President Duncan MacBride, A.M.E.I.C., presided, and during the evening officiated at the annual election of officers of the Victoria branch. The election resulted in I. C. Bartrop, A.M.E.I.C., being unanimously chosen president for 1936, with J. C. MacDonald, M.E.I.C., as vice-chairman and Kenneth Reid, Junior M.E.I.C., re-elected secretary. Members of the executive committee elected for two years were: City Engineer G. M. Irwin, M.E.I.C., and C. D. Schultz, Junior M.E.I.C. K. W. Kneustub, M.E.I.C., was chosen auditor for 1936.

ARTHUR PIKE SEEKING POST

Former Trustee Will Contest School Board Seat at Elections

Arthur C. Pike, 39 Linden Avenue, who was a school trustee from 1925 to 1929, returned to the civic election arena to-day. He announced he would seek a seat on the school board at the polls on December 12.

Mr. Pike, who is building superintendent and engineer for David Spencer Limited, is returning to the lists after an absence of six years.

During his previous terms as a trustee he was a member of the building and grounds committee in the work of which department he had had valuable experience.

FORMER LIBRARY BOARD MEMBER

In addition to his terms as a trustee, he was a member of the library board from 1920 to 1925, leaving the latter when he secured his seat on the school board.

His entry was the seventh for the four seats which became vacant this year. Trustees Kenneth Ferguson and Charles Bishop, as well as Alice Marshall, Walter Stanland, Peter J. Riddell and Frank Mulliner are also standing for election.

In the council lists nine candidates have come forward, including the five aldermen whose terms expire at the end of this year.

SAYS PIONEER SPIRIT LOST

Resources Have Vanished With Interest in Province, Says Rev. O. T. Hodgson

The people of British Columbia have lost the pioneering spirit of going out and finding out about their province for themselves, in the opinion of Rev. O. T. Hodgson, former commander in the Royal Navy, who returned to-day to his parish at Alert Bay, at the north end of the inside passage, after a short visit to Victoria and Vancouver.

As a consequence of this lack of interest, Commander Hodgson said in an interview at the Dominion Hotel this morning, the province had seen a great part of its natural resources lost to outsiders.

He quoted as example of this the fact that the fisheries at Alert Bay, the only industry of the settlement, were virtually controlled by the Japanese, and that the majority of the mining and lumber resources of British Columbia were operated by the United States interests.

"SEA PILOT—SKY PILOT"
Commander Hodgson describes himself as a "sea pilot who became a sky pilot."

He was well known here as a naval officer at the Esquimalt station until the time the station was transferred from the Royal Navy to the Dominion.

Shortly after the war he went to Telegraph Creek in the far north as a missionary, and remained there until 1922. In May of last year he was sent to the parish of Alert Bay.

But his heart is in missionary work and in the north. He wants to get away from a parish job and get out into the open again. He said that he hated the muddy waters of Victoria, and wanted the dry cold again.

Commander Hodgson came down from Alert Bay by way of the West Coast, his first trip along that coast in thirty years. He found many changes, notably that new communities had grown up at the fish packing plants, while the old whaling stations had fallen into decay.

He was in Victoria for a few days at the beginning of last week, then went over to Vancouver and accompanied his brother up to Port Alberni, returning here to confer with the Bishop before returning to Vancouver to-day bound for his parish.

WOULD BUILD PLANT HERE

"Bud" Barsky Here to Confer With W. T. Straith on Moving Picture Industry

"We claim that we can make major pictures in western Canada that would answer the requirements of the British quota and give better productions than can be produced in England," said "Bud" Barsky, Hollywood producer, who for many years has been associated with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Tiffany and other outstanding moving picture corporations, in an interview at the Empress Hotel to-day.

Mr. Barsky came into town this morning in company with George Schneiderman, photographic expert with the Fox studios for twenty years, and immediately went into conference with W. T. Straith, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, on the question of producing moving pictures in Victoria.

Amplifying his statement that better pictures could be produced in this country than in England to comply with the British quota law, which requires that 20 per cent of the pictures shown in Great Britain be produced on British soil. Mr. Barsky pointed to the neighboring relation of Victoria to Hollywood, plus the availability of executives and artists with a thorough knowledge of the business.

SMART THREE-PIECE Chesterfield Suites $65

EASY TERMS Home Furniture COMPANY

$100,000 PLANT
"We are prepared to bring $100,000 worth of the most modern moving picture equipment here, with a skeleton organization of experts, and establish a movie plant, including our own laboratory with machine and process shops—a complete and self-sustaining unit," said Mr. Barsky.

He asserted that it would be a big thing for Victoria, or any other Canadian point for that matter, as it would mean the establishment of the moving picture business on a permanent basis.

He would not say whether his company would locate in Victoria, Vancouver, Edmonton, Toronto or Montreal, or establish branches of the industry at all points. It all depended, he said, on the outcome of his conferences with Mr. Straith and the action of the Canadian Government in permitting the entry into Canada of cameras and motion picture equipment free of duty.

"We are just looking over the ground here," he commented.

He thought the establishment of a permanent industry on this side of the border warranted special consideration to permit entry of equipment without tariff bars.

More was required, he maintained, than the present temporary monthly permit if an industry under the British quota was to be permanently established here.

NOTABLE RECORD

Producer Barsky was associated with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for three years in production, was general manager for Tiffany's for a similar period, and for fourteen years prior to that managed "Bud" Barsky's Productions. He is a member of the Screen Writers' Guild.

"Mr. Barsky's work in production includes 'Journey's End,' in which David Manners, now in the city, was featured as the coward; Metro's 'Laughing Boy,' 'The Girl From Missouri,' featuring Jean Harlow, and 'This Man'."

Mr. Schneiderman supervised the photography of Will Rogers's film, "Steamboat Round the Bend," and "The Iron Horse," and such Fox productions as "The World Moves On."

CARNEGIE TO BE TOASTED BY CLUB

Having arranged for a programme of toasts appropriate to the celebration of Carnegie week, the Victoria Toastmasters' Club of the Y.M.C.A. will meet to-morrow night.

Maurice Davis will fill the position of toastmaster. Sam Hill will toast "Books"; critic will be A. Cann, "Reading" will be toasted by J. O. Johnson. His toast will be criticized by J. Rowlands. Col. McGugan will toast "Public Libraries"; critic will be J. E. Paulding. R. J. McRae will toast "Andrew Carnegie," to be criticized by T. Scott. General critic will be V. F. Shoemaker.

The ladies' public speaking class has accepted an invitation to attend the toastmasters' meeting on December 11. The programme will be contributed to jointly by the two clubs.

The League of Nations Society will hold a mass peace meeting at which Rev. C. G. Mackenzie, Mrs. Alan Campbell and Bob MacMaster will speak in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening next. They will speak on the present world situation. The meeting will be broadcast over CFTV.

GETS PROMOTION

NORMAN ST. C. FRASER

Who has been appointed transportation assistant for the Canadian National Railways on Vancouver Island, with headquarters at Point Ellice, succeeding W. S. R. Cameron, who has been retired and who has gone to Alisa Craig, Ontario, to make his home. Mr. Fraser commenced his railway career in 1901, resigning in 1910 to join the International Milling Company of Minneapolis. In 1917 he joined the Canadian Northern Railway at Lucerne, B.C., and after filling various positions in the interior of the province was transferred to Vancouver Island as assistant general agent.

Health Units To Amalgamate

Nanaimo, Nov. 26.—The amalgamation of Nanaimo public health nursing system with Brechin, Harewood and the Bay School, with a view to forming a health unit which will eventually extend from Qualicum to Ladysmith, was proposed by Dr. H. E. Young of the Provincial Health Department, before representatives of the district schools mentioned and Nanaimo Board of School Trustees here on Saturday night.

The representatives, including John Shaw, president of the Nanaimo board, promised to call meetings of their respective bodies immediately and let Dr. Young have their answer before he goes east.

Dr. Young explained the systems in vogue in Saanich, Kelowna and the North Shore, which, he said, were a boon to health and afforded considerable saving to the districts where the plan had been adopted.

Dr. Young proposes that Nanaimo and adjacent districts amalgamate, appoint a health board of members of the school boards, P.T.A.'s, and two public health nurses to administer the system here for a trial period of six months, ending next June, during which time he agrees to allow their school mill rate to remain the same and put on an extra nurse at his department's expense.

He said, in the event of a whole unit being formed here, he believed a grant from the Rockefeller Fund would be forthcoming.

The provincial government was endeavoring to keep abreast with social service of other countries, which gave to the child its rightful inheritance, good health. It would mean less epidemics, and the training started with the school beginners and in their homes, often corrected defects that might make the child later on in years a charge on communities.

Berlin, Nov. 26.—The government today took two important steps to assure proper state education for Nazi youth.

It initiated a new purge in the universities of undesirable professors and ordered all children over the age of ten to be given preparatory instruction that will pave the way for the compulsory labor service and the obligatory military service.

United Ocean Transport Company to Build Two and "K" Line Has Four Under Consideration

Vancouver, Nov. 26.—Two new express motorships will augment the British Columbia, Puget Sound and California service of the United Ocean Transport Company Limited of Kobe, according to a statement received here by the Empire Shipping Company, British Columbia agents for the line, from R. Kono, Pacific Coast representative of the line.

Mr. Kono has announced that his principals have contracted with the Mitsubishi dockyard at Nagasaki for the two new ships. The Ocean Line at present operates fortnightly sailings from Japan to California, Puget Sound and British Columbia ports with the modern motorships Koyei Maru, Kosei Maru, Kesho Maru and Koryu Maru. Addition of the two new vessels, it is anticipated, will afford a sailing every ten days. They will be similar in design to the ships now operating and will have a deadweight capacity of about 10,000 tons and a cruising speed of sixteen knots.

They will be especially fitted for the handling of silk, cotton and general cargo, and will be equipped with space for the accommodation of perishable cargoes under refrigeration.

It is expected the new ships will be delivered by the builders in the fall of next year.

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—According to word received here this morning the "K" Line has completed plans for the building of four fast new motorships for Pacific Coast service between the Orient and the Coast.

Rumor has it that the proposed vessels will exceed in speed any freight motorships now under the flag of Japan. A speed of nineteen knots is expected, and there will be space for approximately 5,000 bales of raw silk and 7,000 tons of general cargo. There will also be limited accommodation for passengers.

STRIKE BREAK NOW POSSIBLE

Seattle, Nov. 26.—A break in the deadlock between striking masters, mates and pilots and operators of Puget Sound ferry and freight boats appeared possible today as the union called a meeting to consider returning to work, pending settlement of the dispute.

An unofficial meeting yesterday, the masters, mates and pilots agreed to hold another one today.

Manchester City and Middlesbrough each supply two men. The team selected follows: Hibbs (Birmingham); Mah; Haggood (Arsenal); Barker, Bray (Manchester City); Birkett (Middlesbrough); Carter (Sunderland); Cammell (Middlesbrough); Westwood (Bolton Wanderers); Weston (Arsenal).

IN DISTRESS IN WINTER GALE ON ATLANTIC

Taking thirty lives and leaving a trail of destruction amounting to millions of dollars, the Atlantic coast's first winter storm played no favorites on land or sea. The freighter Hartwell, one of whose crew was washed overboard as it tossed in mountainous waves off the Virginia Capes, is pictured from the deck of the Orizaba, which responded to its calls for help.

Charge Monopoly Of Air Service

London, Nov. 26.—The Irish Transatlantic Corporation today decided to press for the appointment of a select committee of the House of Commons to inquire into an alleged attempt to create a monopoly of the north Atlantic air route for the benefit of certain interests to the exclusion of other companies.

Claiming to have certain operating rights, the Irish Transatlantic Corporation circulated members of the new House of Commons with statements of its case. C. H. Glendinning, the chairman, stated the company's political committee was quite capable of protecting its interests.

WHALE SHIP IS LEAKING

But It Will Not Now Be Necessary to Abandon Vessel Off California Coast

San Pedro, Nov. 26.—The whaler California, with thirty men aboard, radioed today it was "holding its own" after having sprung a serious leak off Santa Barbara Island.

The coast guard cutter Itasca has reached the side of the 933-ton wooden boat, and is standing by, said coast guard headquarters.

The California is at anchor forty miles from the southern California coast near the whaling grounds, where it has operated for a number of years.

"Vessel leaking badly. All pumps going full force, but water gaining," said the first distress message from the California, intercepted by the coast guard shortly after 6 a.m., P.S.T.

Later advice to the home here of F. D. Dedrick, one of the owners of the California, indicated, he said, that the pumps are going better and that it would not be necessary to abandon ship.

The cause of the leak was not specified in the messages to Dedrick and the Coast Guard.

The California is the former coast-wise lumber vessel, Williamette, it is owned by the California Whaling Company, of which F. K. Dedrick of Alameda, Calif., is manager-president. The master of the vessel is Naht. D. G. Dedrick. The boat is 8,194 foot craft, with a beam of forty feet.

Minimum Grain Rates Extended

London, Nov. 26.—The tramp shipping administrative committee today decided to extend to the winter months the minimum freight rate agreement for grain shipped eastward from United States ports on the northern Atlantic seaboard.

Minimum freight rates for coal and coke, applying to United Kingdom, northern continental Black Sea ports and north Atlantic United States ports, also were put into effect by the committee today.

All the rates apply as well to Halifax, N.S., and Saint John, N.B. The grain rates were issued October 15.

Four Freighters At Outer Docks To-day

Quarrrington Court and Gedding Court Take Lumber; Monkleigh Loading Doors and Corries Brings Cargo From Europe and California

Four deep-sea freighters kept the Outer Docks of Victoria busy this morning, three of them being at Ogdan Point. They took out lumber and general, including locally manufactured doors and discharged general cargo from Europe and fresh fruit from California.

The St. Monkleigh, Capt. Alexander Hughson, docked at Ogdan Point this morning at 10 o'clock from Vancouver to load a parcel of doors for some of London's new homes. She will get away this evening and will go directly to London.

The Gedding Court, Capt. William Pace, expects to clear to-night about midnight for Chemainus to complete loading for the United Kingdom. She has been here since Sunday evening and is taking 900,000 feet of lumber from this port.

The Quarrrington Court, which is loading in excess of 1,000,000 feet will clear to-morrow for the United Kingdom. King Brothers said this morning. She has been here since Friday evening.

The Donaldson Line's refrigerated ship Corrientes came alongside the Rithet piers this morning at 7 o'clock, inbound from the United Kingdom via the Panama Canal, California ports and Seattle. She proceeded to Vancouver at noon.

The local office of the Holland-American Line has been advised that the Ma. Dinteldyk has reached the California coast from Europe and will arrive here Friday or Saturday of this week.

Capt. H. Carstens, genial bearded master of the German motorship Vancouver, who has been into Port of Victoria on several occasions, is now on his last trip to the British Columbia Coast. When he returns to Germany at the completion of the present voyage he will "swallow the anchor" and retire to his farm home in the Fatherland. Capt. Carstens brought the Vancouver here on her maiden voyage in 1931. Before the war he also served the Pacific Coast on ships of the Kommos Line.

It has been announced that the refrigerated ship Empire Star has had her name changed to Tudor Star because a new Empire Star is building for passenger service between Australia and New Zealand. The Tudor Star is now coming up the Coast and will reach mainland ports about the middle of December.

The motorship Aorangi is expected to reach Victoria late Thursday afternoon, inbound from Sydney, Auckland, Suva and Honolulu. She is running more than twelve hours ahead of schedule.

Seattle, Nov. 26.—Three ships in as many services will be handled on Puget Sound during the last of this week, and in the first days of December. First of the carriers will be the Furness liner Pacific Explorer, arriving at Tacoma to-morrow to start bound cargo for the United Kingdom. She will shift to Olympia Friday and come to Seattle Saturday, sailing from this port December 2 with apples, lumber, canned goods and general.

On November 30 the motorship Bintaang of the Silver-Java-Pacific Line will arrive at Bellingham. She will come to Seattle December 1, load lumber pulp and general, and sail the next day via California, the Panama Canal and the Gulf of Mexico.

On Sunday next the Silverpaul is due to load perishables, lumber, doors and general for Manila, the Dutch East India and India. Included in the cargo to be lifted here are two thoroughbred Holstein bulls from the Garstons Farm, destined to Bombay. The livestock shipment is a continuation of the movement of Washington cattle to India, which started several years ago.

WILL RECONSTRUCT Seattle Terminals

Seattle, Nov. 26.—Two contracts calling for the expenditure of $86,889 on two reconstruction projects at Port of Seattle terminals were awarded today by the City Port Commission.

The general construction company was low on the Spokane Street Terminal, with a bid of $82,000. The successful bidder on reconstruction of the open wharf and the wearing surface on the floors on the east and west sides of pier 41 was Carl Bjork, with a low of $44,889. Both are Seattle contractors.

About seventy men will be employed for six months on the two projects.
